Strike A Pose

Each day some 600 students travel from distances of up to fifty miles to attend University High School.
High school is an important time in the lives of all teens, so the decision to attend U-High is an important one.
There must be some reason why students leave their community schools to commute the distance to study at UHS.

According to Dr. Charton,
"The main reason is that UHigh allows students a genuine opportunity to 'Strike A Pose,' and it doesn't have to be a pose out of a recipe book where you have to be this or that. We nurture people's right to strike differing poses and still be accepted."

U-High is filled with endless opportunities. The student body itself is a select and varied group allowing students to react with others from different communities. The academics are second to none with a wide variety of classes to take. Also, U-High has over forty active clubs for students to participate in. And if the students cannot find a desired club out of the forty offered, a new one can easily be organized. Finally, U-High promotes many sports programs for males and females, all of which are very competitive.

Any senior could tell that

U-High offers immense opportunities for achievement. After four years, seniors can see all that they have accomplished, often with the help of U-High's many programs. Looking back, seniors remember being new, inexperienced freshmen with high hopes for success. And after all the challenging classes, standardized tests, and lengthy college applications, seniors are ready to move on, leaving room for the next class of freshmen, starting the cycle all over again.

When asked why they liked U-High, the students had a variety of responses, but all seemed to agree that students have freedom to make choices. Senior Gretchen Roetzer said, "People are so open with their feelings. There's not a sense of isolation. Also, you can do what you want." Also, a freshman replied, "The choice is yours to do what you want."

But the most important aspect of University High School is that all students have the opportunity to "Strike A Pose," or make their mark, whether it be academically, through sports, clubs, or all three. No other school offers quite the same, and that is why the theme of the 1990-1991 Clarion is "Strike A Pose."

Homecoming Week An "Under the Sea" Adventure

The 1990 Homecoming festivities quickly set into motion starting with the "Under the Sea" activities. The creative theme added a new twist to the traditional events.

As in years before, the week began with the hall decorations which helped to set the mood for the remaining functions. The next day brought movies that carried on the "Under the Sea" theme, such as The Little Mermaid. The class games followed, enabling each class to compete for the first place title. Then, the bonfire was held as a final rally for the Homecoming game.

An addition to this year's celebration was the photo scavenger hunt. Students armed with Polaroid cameras were given a list of pictures to take in an allotted amount of time. According to Jenny Studebaker, "It was a lot of fun and got a lot of people involved."

The week concluded with the awaited football game against the Olympia Spartans and the customary Homecoming dance. The 'Sea of Love" dance proved to be a success. The only noted complaint was that the theme song "Sea of Love" was not played for the coronation dance.

We Got It!

Spirit Week at U-High gives students the chance school spirit through dressup days and the pep assembly. This time of celebration has become a needed relief from the winter blues.

> The week started with "University Sweats Day," which many students participated in. Tuesday was deemed "Weird Hair and Feet Day" and Wednesday, "Hats, Buttons, and Shades Day." Thursday, students dressed for "Clash Day," and Friday included the tradi tional "Green and Gold Day" and pep assembly.

Many attended the pep assembly to show their spirit and to enjoy the entertainment, which included the band, the male cheerleading competition, and the Pie-inthe- Eye contest. First, the band played, preparing the crowd for the long awaited male cheerleaders. The seniors won and then led each class in cheers. The assembly concluded with the sophomore class giving the selected faculty members the Pie-in-the-Eye.

Headin' for the Beach

Summer fun in January

The Beach Dance brought an exciting end to Spirit Week. Students arrived in their summer best to forget the cold and to heat up the dance floor. Despite the frigid temperatures, the students actively participated in the spirit of the evening by wearing clothing suitable only for the beach.

The crowded dance floor
pulsated with the excitement from the mounting spirit of the past week. Another Spirit Week had ended, and the Beach Dance brought a proper end to the celebration of school spirit.

TWIRP

The Woman Is Required to Pay

The TWIRP Dance proved to be an eventful evening. As tradition dictates, this is the dance which the girls treat their dates to dinner and then attend the dance.

Once at the dance, couples enjoyed good music, a romantic setting at the candle-lit tables, and cookies and punch as an additional treat. The D.J. played a variety of music and attempted to get a dance line started, which wasn't too successful. Later, Chris Naylor performed his own rendition of "Stayin' Alive."

Eventually eleven o'clock rolled around, and the dance floor remained crowded as the lights illuminated the lounge. The students seemed reluctant to leave, but the night of dining and dancing had come to a close.

Prom at the Pavillion

"A Night to Remember"

to have their pictures taken Gran

The much awaited Prom Night finally arrived after months of preparation. The Junior class spent the year in planning to make May 4th,
1991 a "Night to Remember."

For many, the evening began with hours of readying, as students adorned themselves in elegant dresses and classy tuxedos. No expense was spared for dinner, as many students traveled as far as Peoria to eat at the perfect restaurant.

For the first time, couples were offered the opportunity to have their pictures taken before dinner rather than having to wait in line at the dance. Many students took advantage of this and agreed that it was a good idea.

At eight o'clock, couples began arriving at the Miller Park Pavillion for the Prom. Kevin Eggan thought that the Pavillion was a "great location." Also, Heather Albright said, "The Pavillion was really pretty, and the rain and lightening made it romantic."

The evening included the Grand March, Coronation, and even the "Garter Dance." Demonstrated by Charles Sieg and Kim Donovan, the guys sang "You've Lost that Lovin' Feeling" to their dates, and at the proper moment, took off the girls' garters. At last, eleven thirty came, and the couples were forced to leave. In summation, Sarah Bray stated, "Wishes do come true." Prom had ended, but there was more to come at After Prom.

Students Gamble & Bowl For Prizes

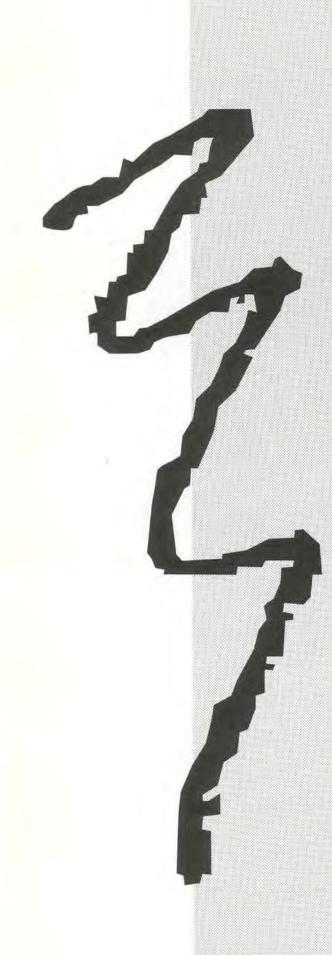

Pouring rain couldn't keep the students away from the After Prom festivities this year. After Prom was set into action as students arrived to participate in its many activities.

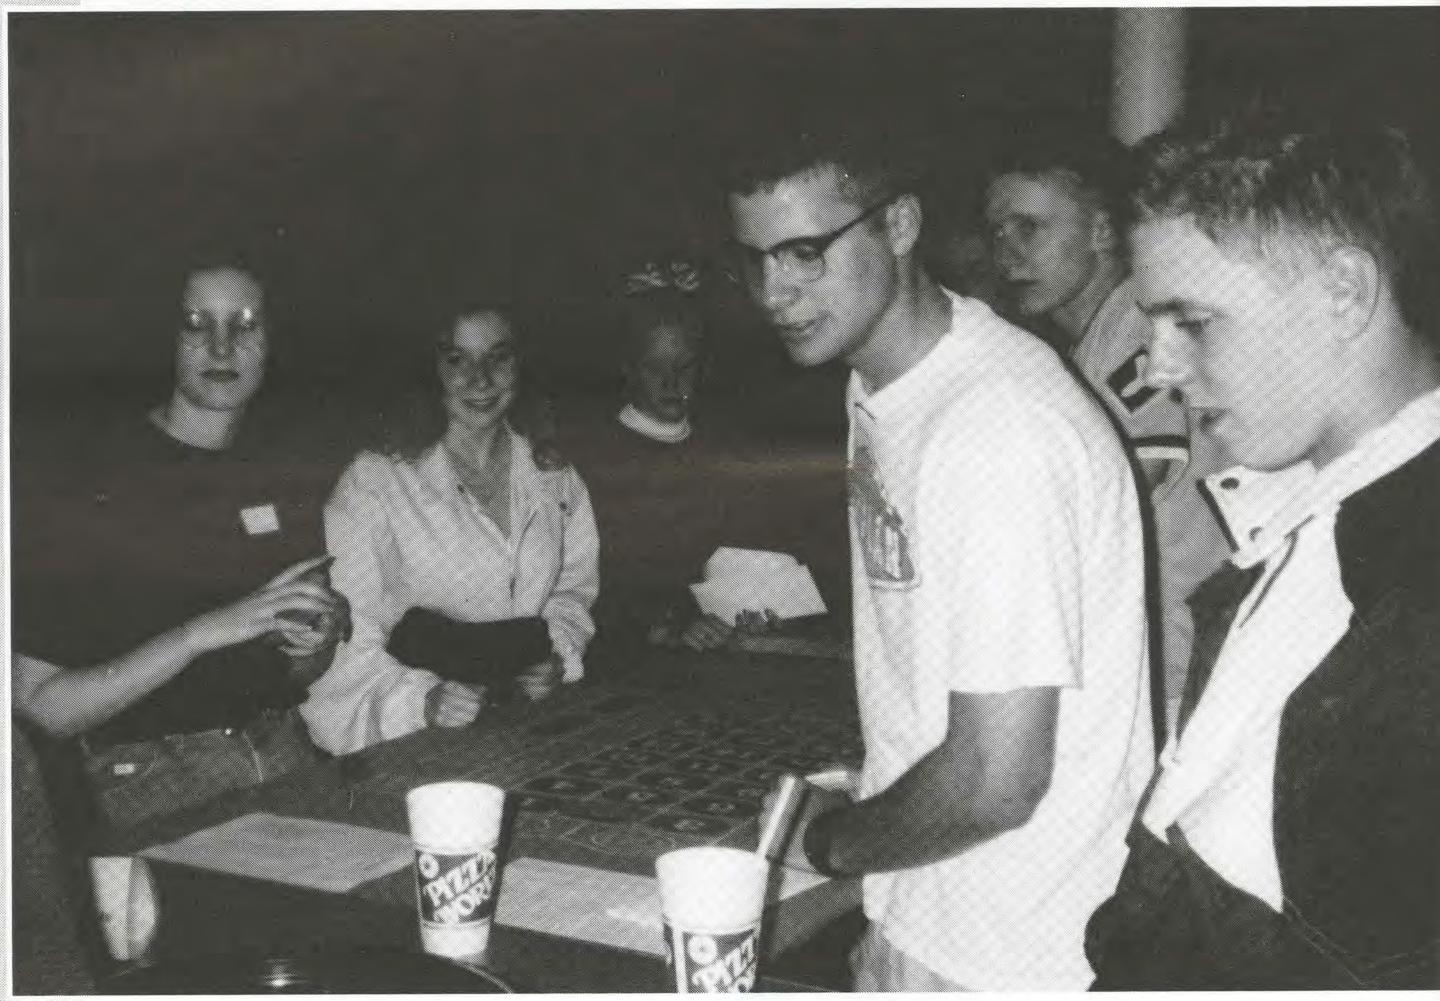

Students started with a set amount of money which they could add to by bowling or gambling. Many spent the entire evening bowling, while others took the gambling route, playing roulette, craps, or black jack. The money earned could be spent at the end in the auction for the numerous prizes donated by area businesses.

Everyone appeared to have a great time. There was plenty of food and fun for everyone, and some came away with terrific prizes.

Class Night "In Living Color"

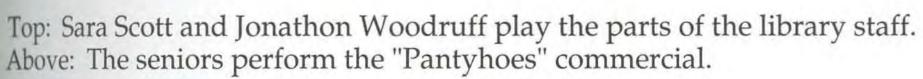

Class Night not only represents a farewell to the senior class, but also tradition. Tradition is deeply rooted in the yearly production of Class Night. Both the Moving up of Classes and the Passing on of the Lamp of Knowledge have been performed for decades.

This year, Mr. Briggs upheld his own tradition by beginning Class Night with the Rock and Roll High School welcome and slide show. This was followed by the faculty skit, and then the senior skits, which were modeled after the FOX television show "In Living Color," began. The students enjoyed the many skits which featured such topics as the cheerleading and pom-pon squads, the lounge, and the faculty.

The last part of Class Night took on a more serious atmosphere. The senior class gave its advisors gifts in thanks far all their work. Then, the seniors sang their class song. Finally came the Passing on of the Lamp of Knowledge to the junior class and the Moving up of the Classes, which said goodbye to the seniors and welcomed in next year's freshman class.

Senior Brunch

Each year, the Senior Brunch provides seniors one last chance to be together as a class before graduation. It also allows the seniors to look back on their high school years before having to look forward to the future.

The Senior Brunch was held on the Friday after Class Night from eleven o'clock to one o'clock. This was the first day that the seniors weren't in class with the other students, and many commented that it felt strange.

The brunch began with eating which was followed by the program that was prepared by the Senior Brunch Committee. First in the program was the Class History which spanned from the eighth grade to senior year. In the Class History, seniors reminisced about the past and shared many interesting anecdotes. Next, Thom Reed III gave a speech which included his impression of the "freshman smile." This was followed by the reading of the Class Wills and the presentation of the Class Awards.

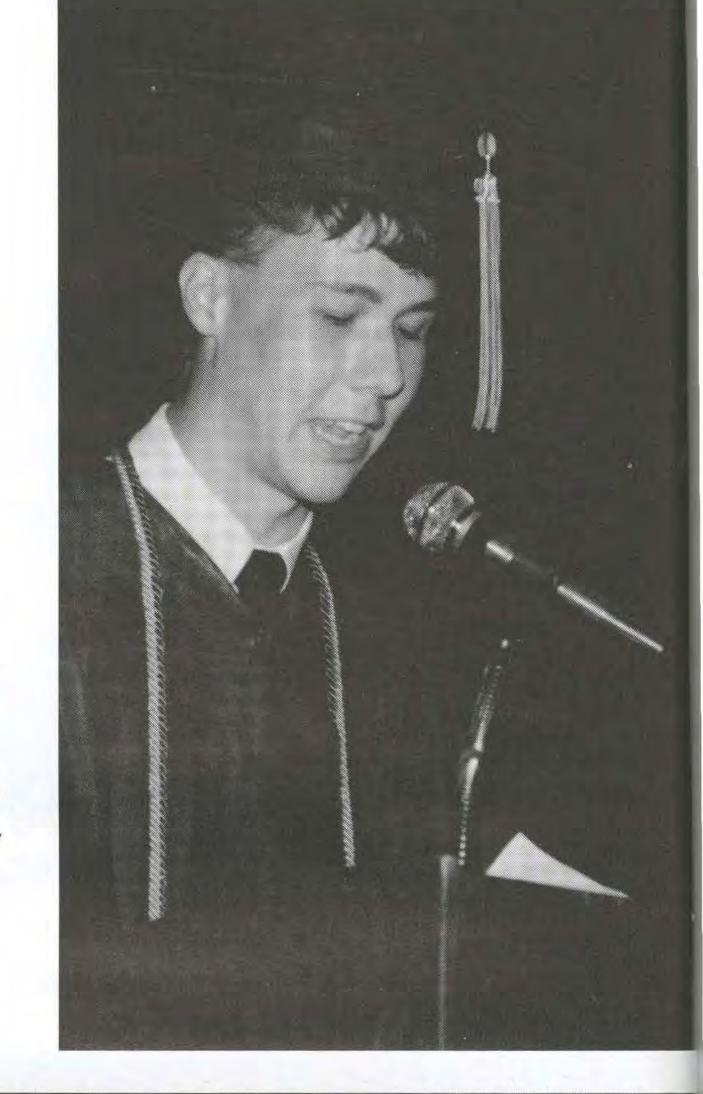

Graduation A Beginning and an Ending Graduaiton means both an end and a beginning. First, it's an end to high school and a goodbye to friends and familiarity. Many graduates commented that they didn't feel ready for graduation and that they couldn't believe it graduation is also a beginning. The future holds endless possibilities. Graduates can look forward to college and careers. Also, the future offers opportunities for change. The graduates will leave high school and meet new people and face new challenges.

Hold on to the Moment

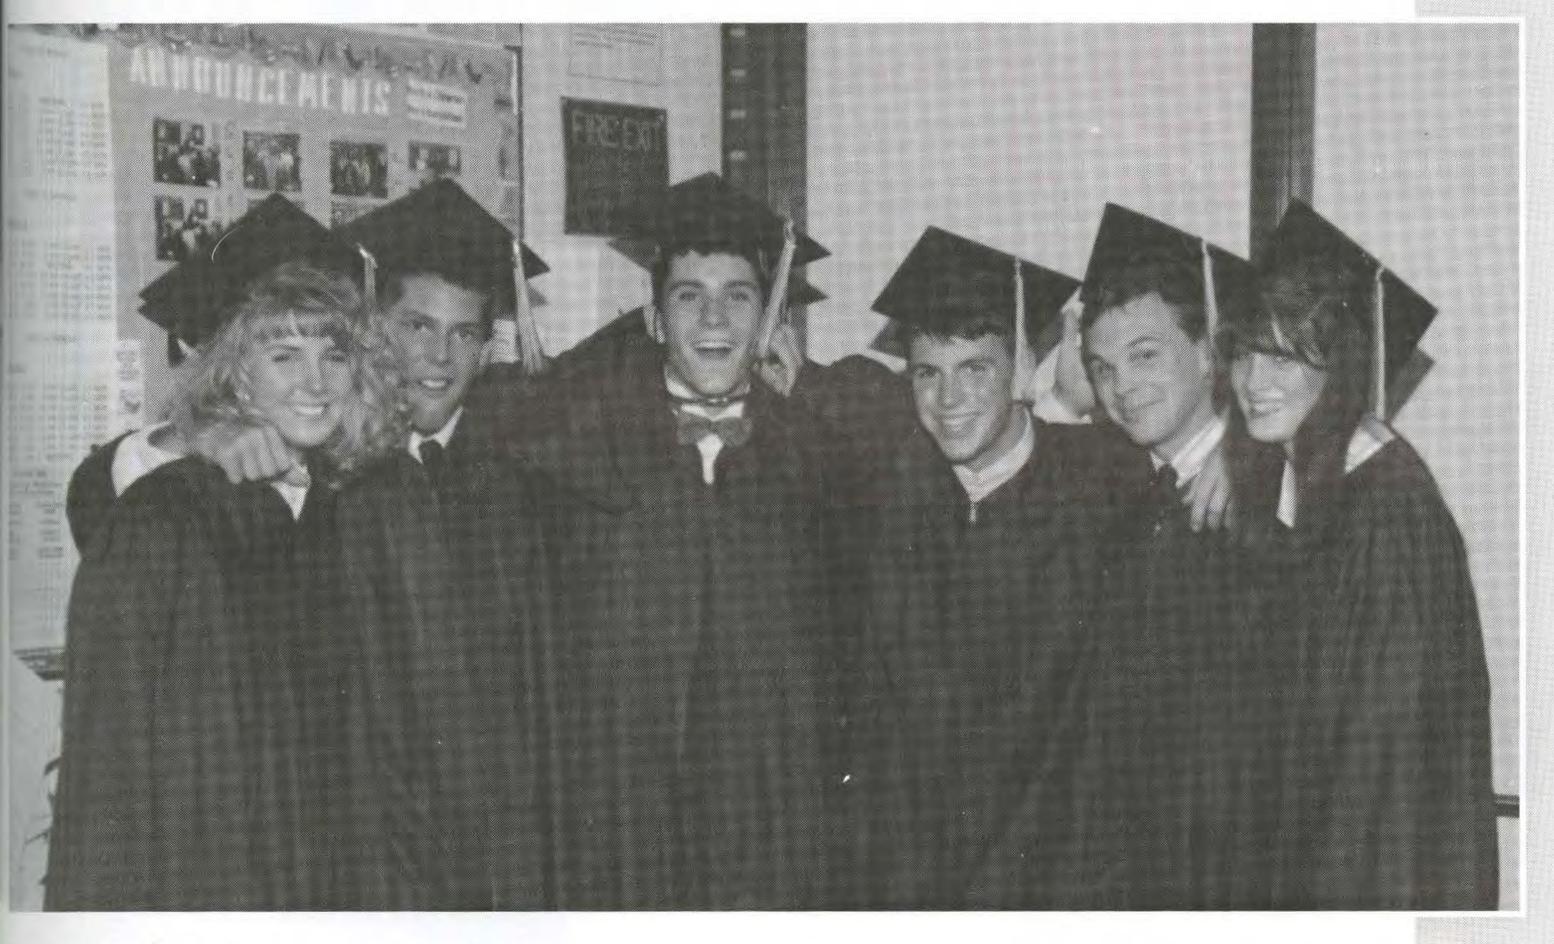

Single file and yet together
We have shared our greatest days.
And we carry common memories
In different ways.

Though we don't know where we're going,
We will cherish where we've been.
I want to cry.
I want to shout...
Want to let this feeling out.

Hold on to the moment. Let the feelings show. Hold on to the moment. Never let it go.

I can picture us together
With my arms around my friends.
Just let me hold on to this moment,
Before it ends.
There was laughter. There were tears,
Through the golden years.

Strike A Pose

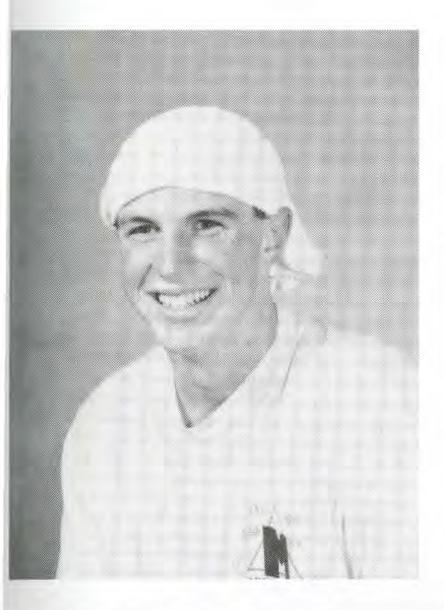

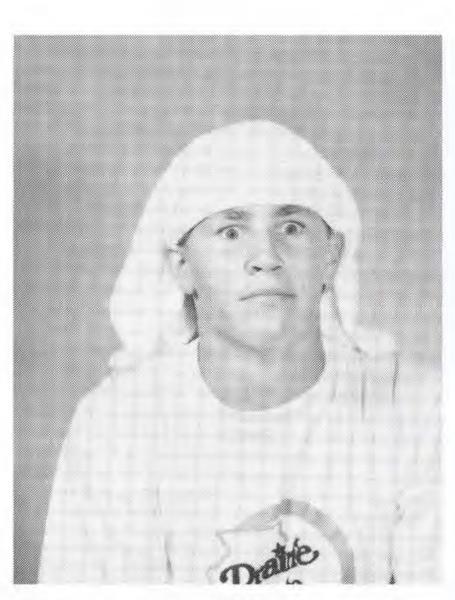

Another Year

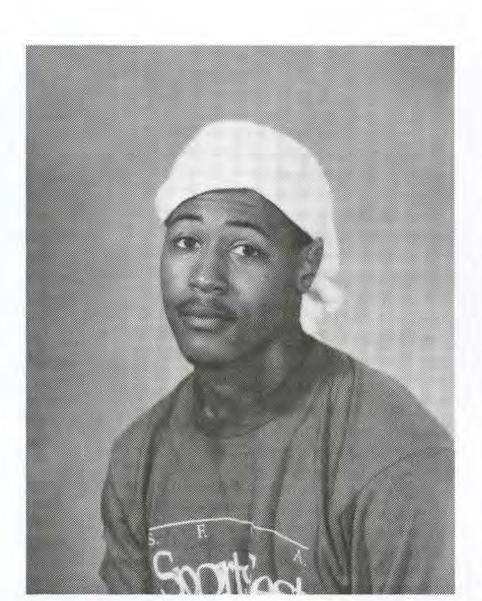

Another year has ended. Students have gained a year's worth of knowledge and have suffered through two days of finals. Athletes have won and lost. Friendships have formed and relationships have grown. Seniors now leave to begin their adult lives. Juniors move up to take on the leadership roles of the seniors as the sophomores move on to the increased freedoms of driving. Freshmen increase their standing to sophomore status and eighth grade students make the transition from junior high to high school. Each year, the cycle continues allowing students to "Strike A Pose" at University High School.

We, the hungry Senior class, hereby will and bequeath to the Sophmores who run the student store, a watch that tells correct time so they don't close 55 minutes early.

We, the ever talented, ever gorgeous Senoir girls, hereby will and bequeath to the Sophomores who count on their fingers since they can't figure out the cash register, a counting lesson so they can tell the difference between 10 pennies and one dollar.

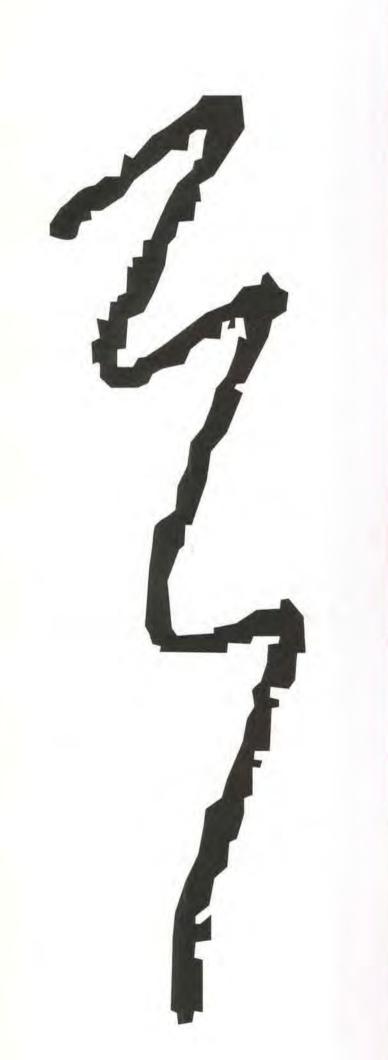

We, a couple of hot Senior babes, hereby will and bequeath to the insecure midget Freshmen boys, a growth spurt so we won't step on you the next time we visit the 3rd floor.

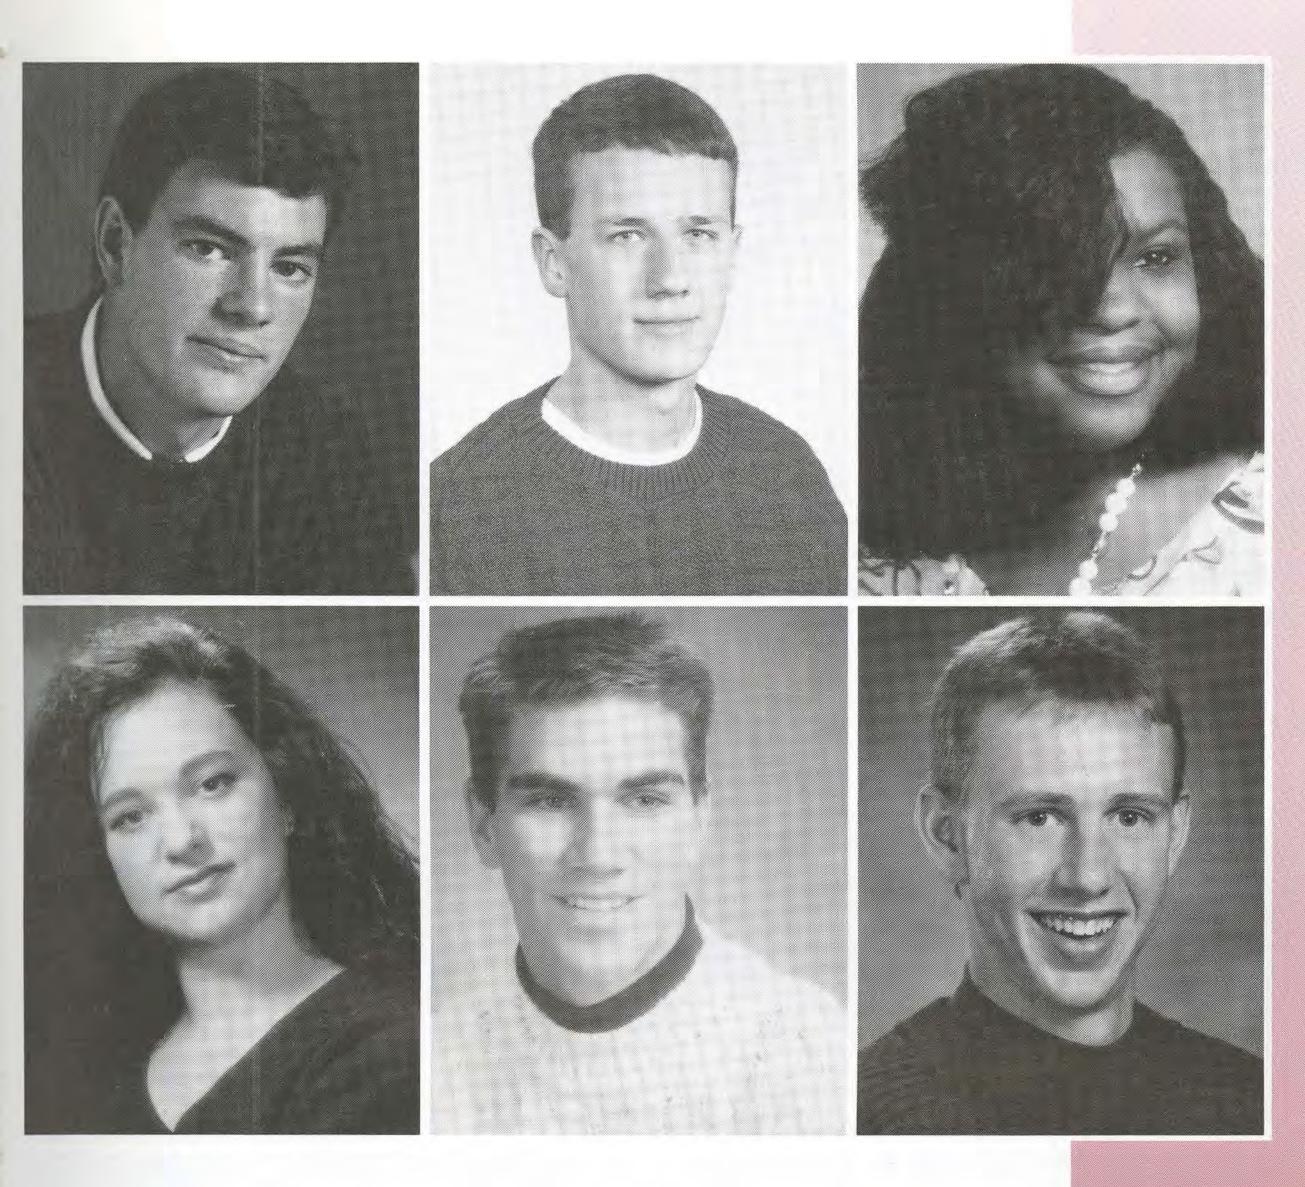

We, the ever mature Senior girls, hereby will and bequeath to the Freshmen cheerleaders (and their basketball boy-toys) a one way ticket to the moon, so they can go find their brains and start their own colony of pathetic couples.

We, two very unrespectable Senior women, hereby will and bequeath to the Freshmen cheerleaders, a blow-up male anatomically correct doll, to use when their jock boyfriends graduate 10 years before them.

We, the Senior girls- enough said - hereby will and bequeath to the Frosh boys, a picture of us so you can keep on worshipping us after we leave your beloved company.

O When we had the time

Everyone had a favorite T.V. show when they were little. In between naps and trips to the sandbox in the backyard, we would plop down on the floor and watch television for hours. When we asked U-High students which shows were their favorite, the answers varied from Tarzan to The Flintstones. Here are the results.

Mr. Brigg's Top Student Excuses For Being Late To Class

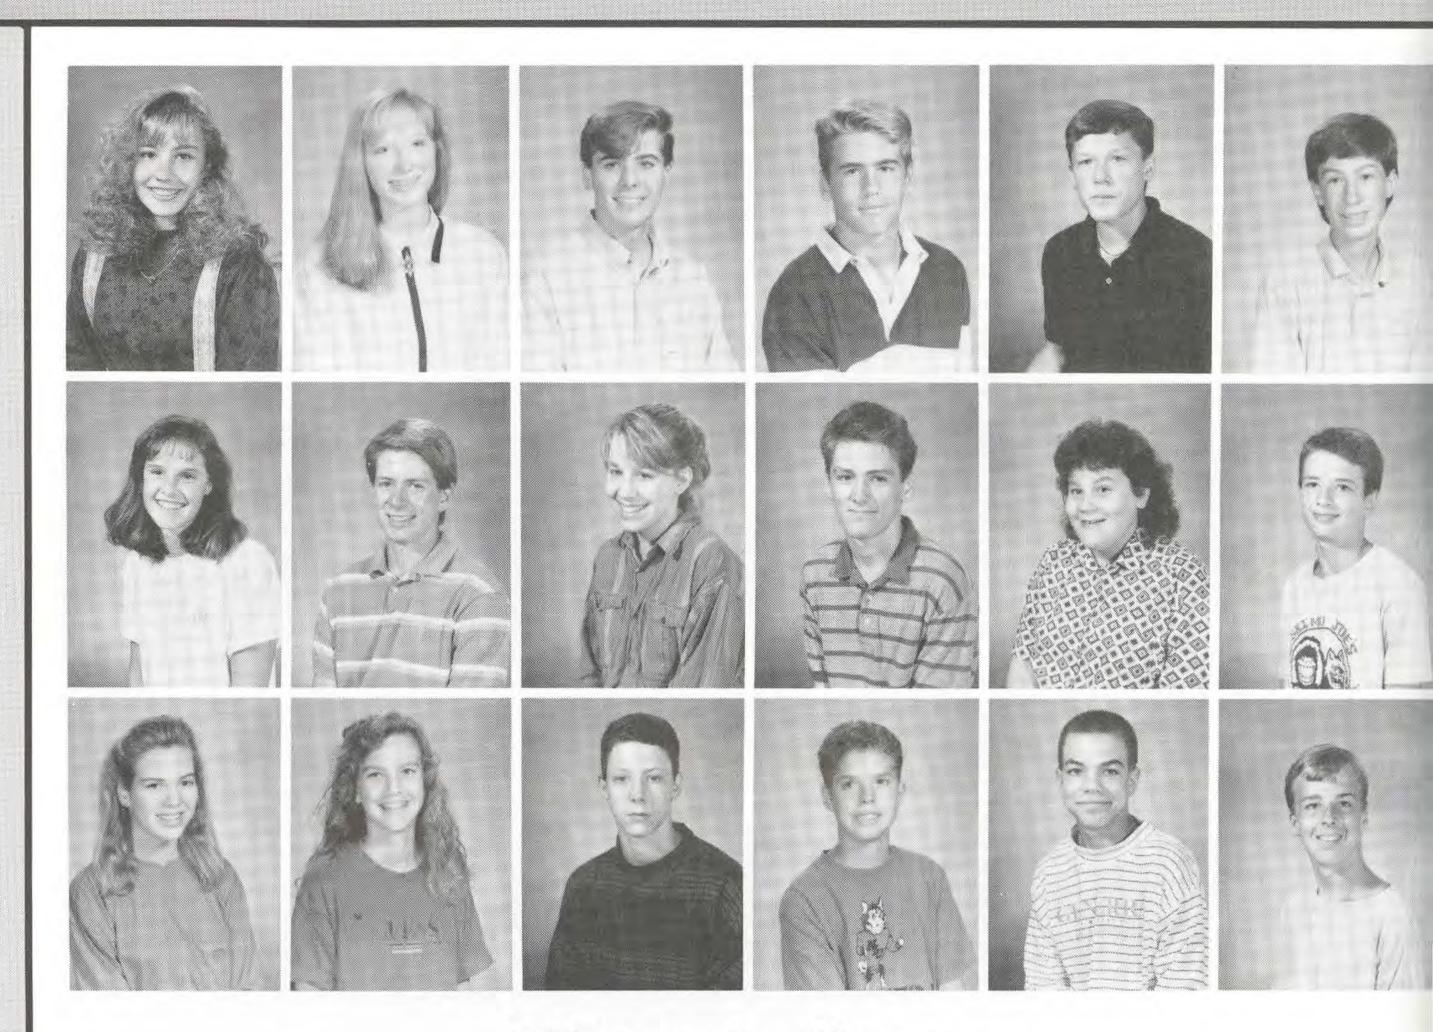

- I had to drive my Grandma to the train station; we got stuck behind a big, fat, train, and we got a flat tire.
- We were eating lunch at Avanti's, and, well, you know how they are.
- I fell asleep in Mr. Boyd's class.
- I was almost to class, and then remembered I had to brush my teeth.
- I was outside looking for matching snowflakes and almost found some.
- I thought I felt an earthquake so I had to drop and cover.
- I had to answer my locker phone.
- I had to get the rabbit fuzz out of my eyeball.
- I can't tell you why I was late It's a secret.
- I'm late because Dan kept giving me the evil eye.
- My shoe was on fire.
- Well, we ate lunch at Pizza Hut and they've got these new breadsticks that are really big and it took a long time to eat them.
- Sorry, Mr Brigg's, I forgot I had this class.

War In The Gulf

On January 16, 1991 the United States declared war. Many Americans turned on the television and watched War In The Gulf updates with intense eyes. They closely followed issues brought stories about missing T.V. journalists, P.O.W.s, Saddam Hussein, and much more. The opinions of the American people varied as to whether fighting should have started so soon or at all. Some thought sanctions would have worked if allowed more time, others were ready for military action. By February 27, 1991 our Air and Ground Allied forces had won the war. Thousands of Iraqi troops had surrendered their lives to the Americans.

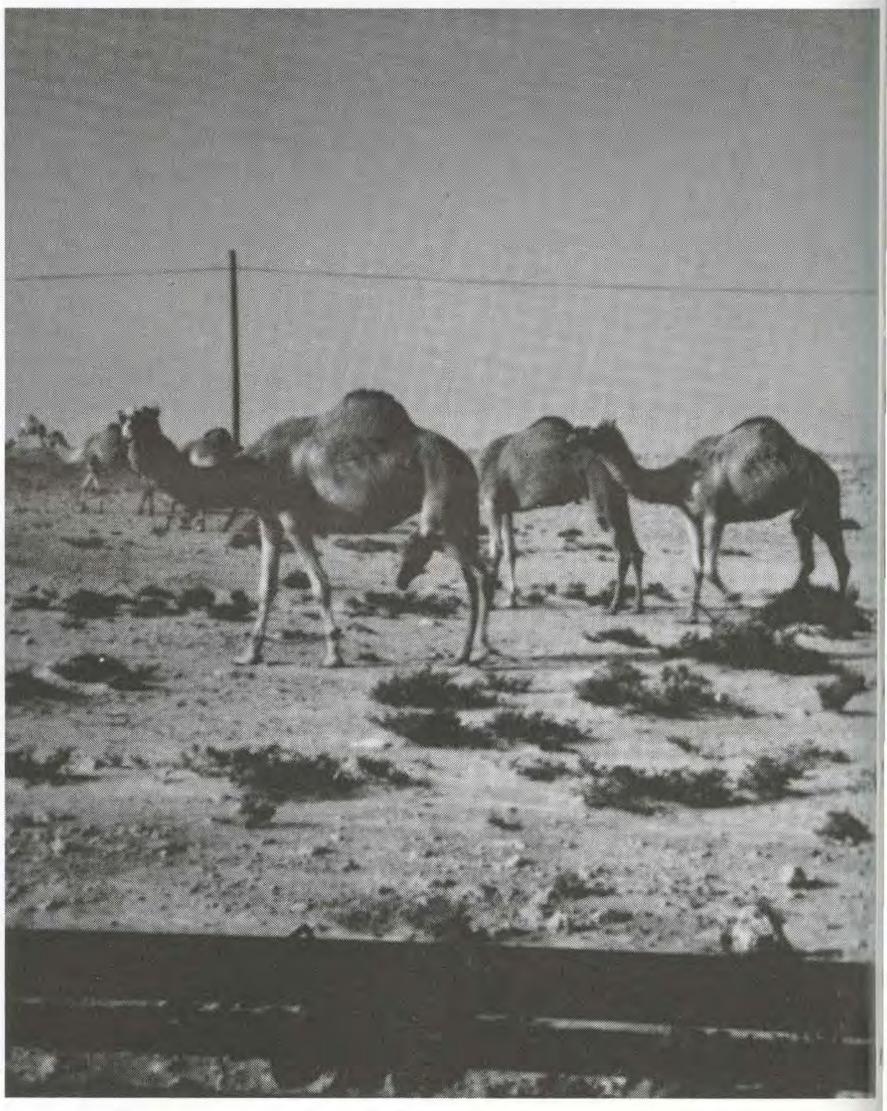

The pride spread throughout American hearts as we watched President Bush give the victory speech. Families waited to hear news of when their loved one would return home. Everything seemed great for the Americans, however in the Middle East things were still a mess. The city of Kuwait was destroyed and the people were in need of food, medicine and help to restore their land. In Iraq, Saddam remained in power and the Kurds revolted.

The events took place so fast that now it is hard to believe it could be over. Let's hope it really is.

Journalism

Journalism is a group of individuals chosen by Ms. Marshall to put together the yearbook and newspaper each year. At the beginning of the year the yearbook staff had little to do, but as the year progressed so did the work. The newspaper staff worked on producing ten issues of the Clarionette. Even though the yearbook and newspaper staffs are separate groups, they often pull together to exchange ideas. This was the first year the journalism staff had the opportunity to work with video equipment producing WUHS, a news broadcast program. The entire staff was involved in creating this school news broadcast. The experience gave us a chance to learn what goes into Television production.

Marshall is the real yearbook adviser.

Chorus

Both the MixedChorus and the Concert Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Isaacson, have had another year of excitement. They took a trip to New Orleans, jazz capitol of the world, where eveyone had a wonderful time. They were involved in a competition and won the Grand Championship for their several outstanding performances. They also participated in the I.H.S.A. music contest, and for the fourth year recieved division I ratings in all areas of performance. Ten students were selected to perform in the District Choral Festival. Out of those ten, one was selected for the All-State chorus and two for the Honors choir. All in all, the chorus had a fulfilling year.

Orchestra and Madrigals

This year's Orchestra was booming! There was a significant increase in the number of participants compared to the last several years. The Orchestra performed at three concerts, two of which a few band members joined them to make their sound even bigger. The highlight of this year was the day trip to Chicago. The Orchestra did a bit of shopping and then attended a Chicago Symphony Concert. Over all, the year was quite productive for the Orchestra.

Band

The marching band, pep band, and concert band have all accomplished a lot this year. The marching band participated in several competitions as well as playing at all of the home football games. The pep band fired up the crowds at all of the home basketball games also. Concert band gave several performances along with attending the IHSA contest.

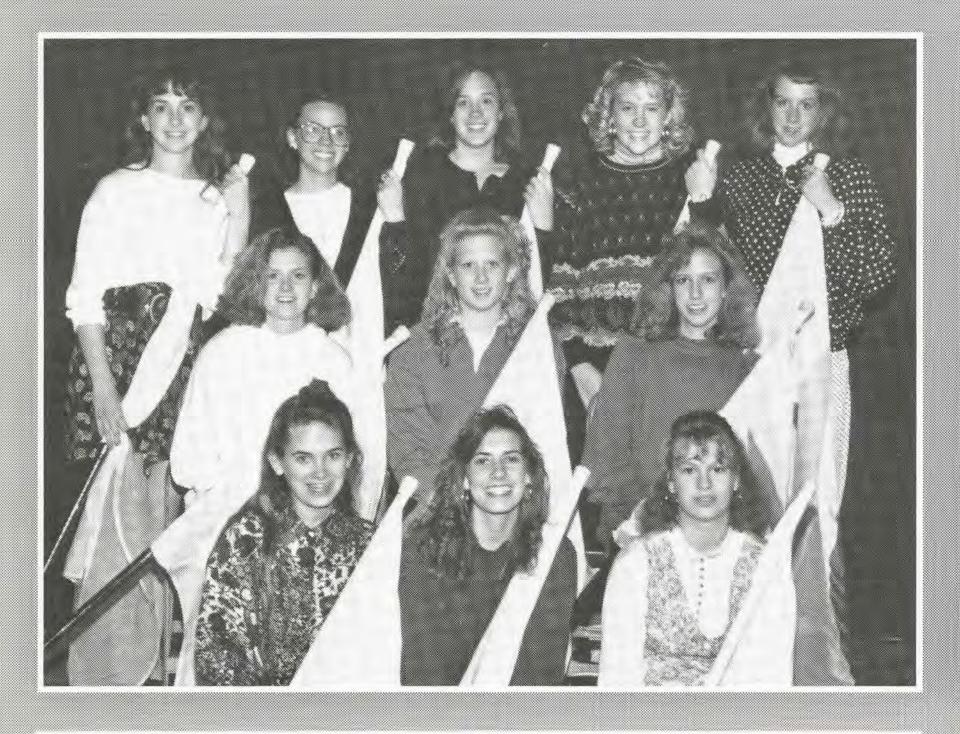

Many of us don't realize how much spirit the band brings out in our school. Mr. Victor added that extra touch in his years here at U-High. The school will miss Mr. Victor, and his many years of dedicated service to the band!

Thespians

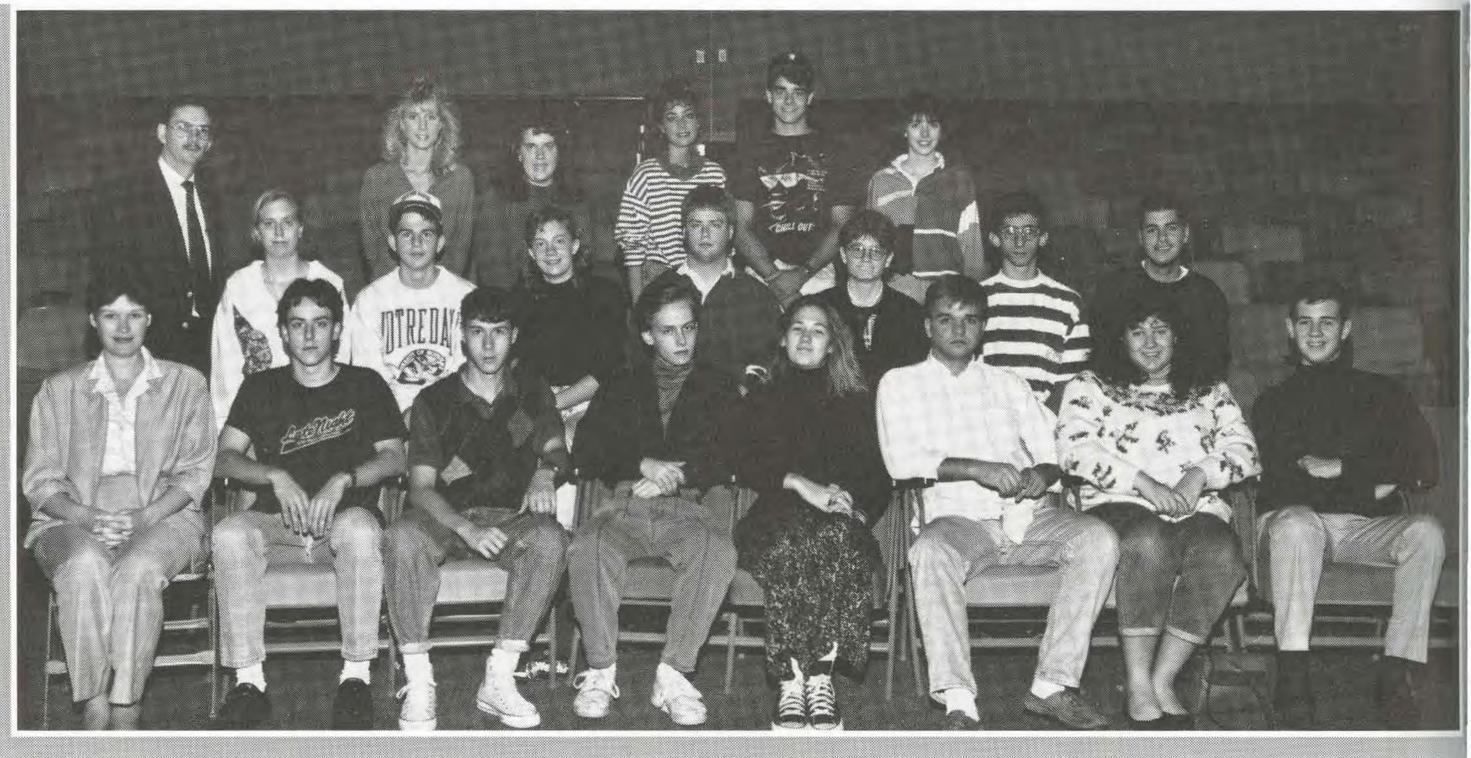

Thespians is an international honorary drama organization. Membership is based upon participation and excellence in the high school theatre program. Our thespian troupe is the organizing group for our drama program. One need not be a thespian to participate.

Their activities for the year have been: the Fall play, The Real Inspector Hound, the one acts, "Adaptation" and "Overtones", the Illinois High School Festival at U of I, Group Interp. / Drama competition, and the Spring musical Anything Goes.

They also hold an annual Thespian Banquet each year, where new members are initiated and old members are awarded.

Art Club

U-High encourages us to show our individuality, which is prominant in areas such as the fine arts. The Art Club provides an opportunity for those artists in the school to show and improve their talent. They displayed some of their work, along with art classes, in the lounge during the Allied Arts Week. Several members entered pieces in the Mclean County Art Show. Jeff Otto, Doug Wilken, and Erin O'Rouke each recieved awards for their entries. Erin also recieved a Talent Grant from I.S.U. In the "Small Time" exhibition for "Two Bits" sponsored by Western Illinois University, Dima Strakovsky won honorable mention.

Library Club

The Library Club keeps very active here at U-High. Under the guidance of Mrs. Hoss, the members learn the secrets of the Dewey Decimal system and effective library research skills. The members help keep organized by reshelving books and magazines, plus other miscellaneous jobs. In addition to that, this year the Library Club took a field trip to the new State Library in Springfield.

Senate

Senate members are elected to be officers by their peers, to represent their class and the school. The students work together on projects throughout the year. Among a few of these projects are dances, fund raisers, and other important school functions.

Not all of the members do everything together. They are separated into different committees that peak their interest.

No matter what the task is at hand, the members always work hard as a team to make descisions and represent U-High the best way they can.

C.A.P.T.A.I.N.S. (Coaches/Sponsors and Pupils/ Parents Teaming Against Inappropriate Negative Situations) are made up of individuals striving for a more positive life style and who are committed to leading others toward this same goal.

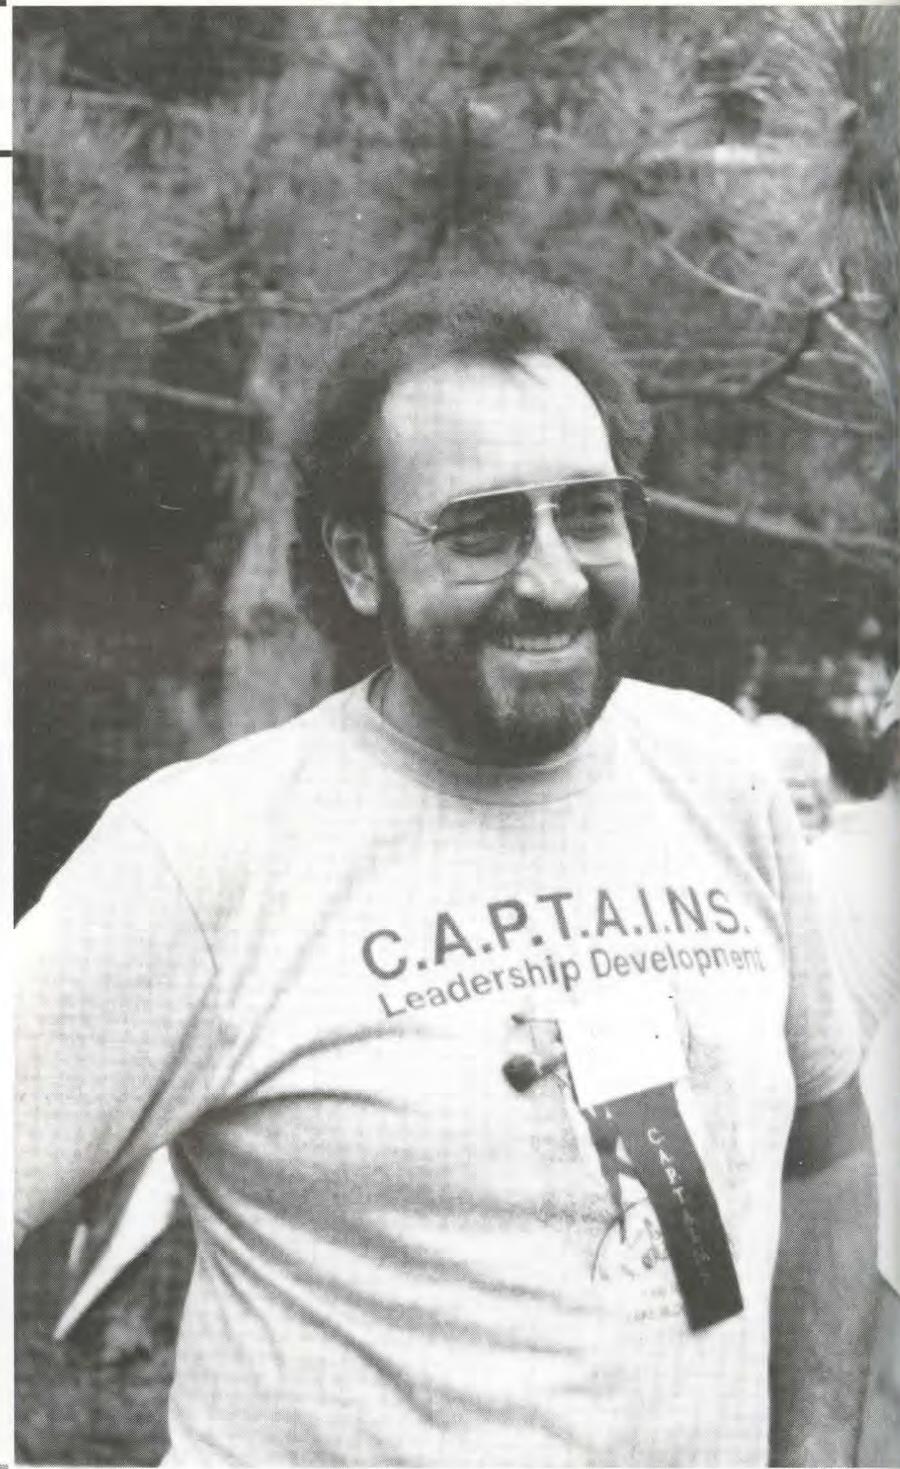

Students are chosen by coaches and sponsors or are elected by their peers. They are selected for leadership roles based on someone else's ideas of what qualities a good leader should possess. These qualities include leadership, commitment to activities, communication skills, honesty, and openness.

CAPTAINS have sponsored many activities this year. Their biggest event was Teen Institute Day held April 4. The day started off with motivational speaker, Laurie Stewart. Then the students attended two seminars of their choice. Some of the choices were: "The Gulf War", "Devil Worship", "Tragic Impacts of Drinking and Driving", and "Can AIDS Affect Me?".

The CAPTAINS also attend a retreat once a year with students from other schools from around the area.

Football Fights Players pull through a rough season

It's hard to come back after a 11-1 season to a 4-5 season but, the 1990 U-High varsity football team did it with grace. The Pioneers had an opening game loss which caused first year coach Dave Gannaway to switch around the positions of his starting players. Despite the situation, the Pioneers came back strong after the switch and defeated Pontiac and Mahomet-Seymour.

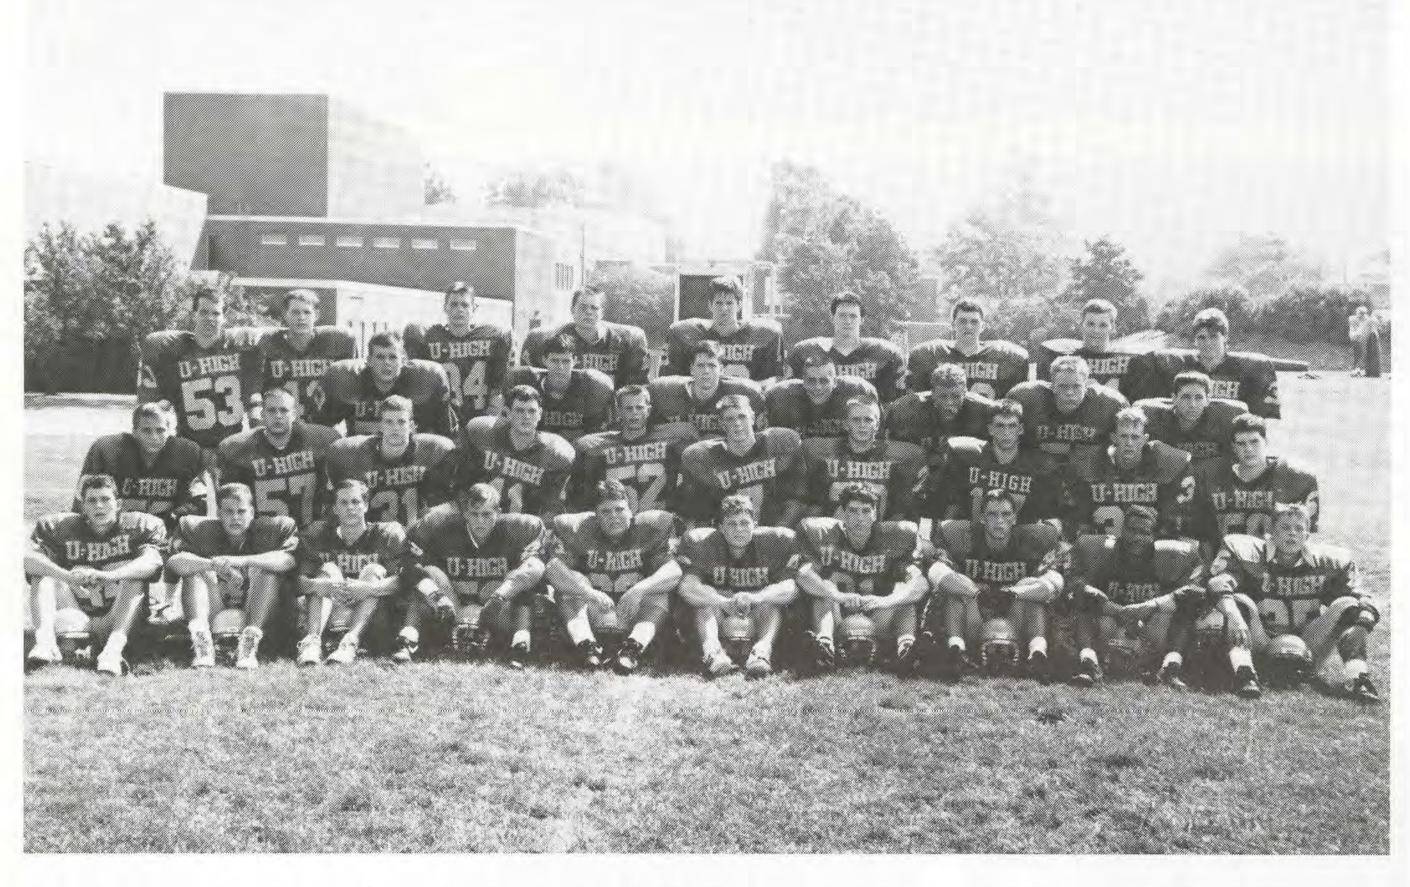

The Pioneers shut out long time rival Olympia in the 1990 Homecoming game. The Pioneers won another shut out game against Prairie Central later in the season.

The team was led by senior captians Steve Halcomb, Paul Langillier, and John Feely, and by junior captain Corey Christenson. Steve Halcomb was awarded the most valuable player for the year and Aaron Adams and John Feely shared the most improved award.

The Pioneers boasted two all conference first team players, Steve Halcomb and Corey Christenson, and four second team players, Steve Halcomb, Corey Christienson, John Malito, and Brendon Penn.

Jeff Otto lead the team in interceptions, John Malito was awarded the best linemen award, Brendon Penn had the most tackles, and Justin Benjamin was awarded the special teams award.

Ice, Ice Babies

The University High School cheerleading squad cheered and danced their way to the national competiton for the second year in a row.

The girls spent a week during the summer at the camp where they won the honor of competing for the national title. Nationals were held in December in Nashville, Tenn.

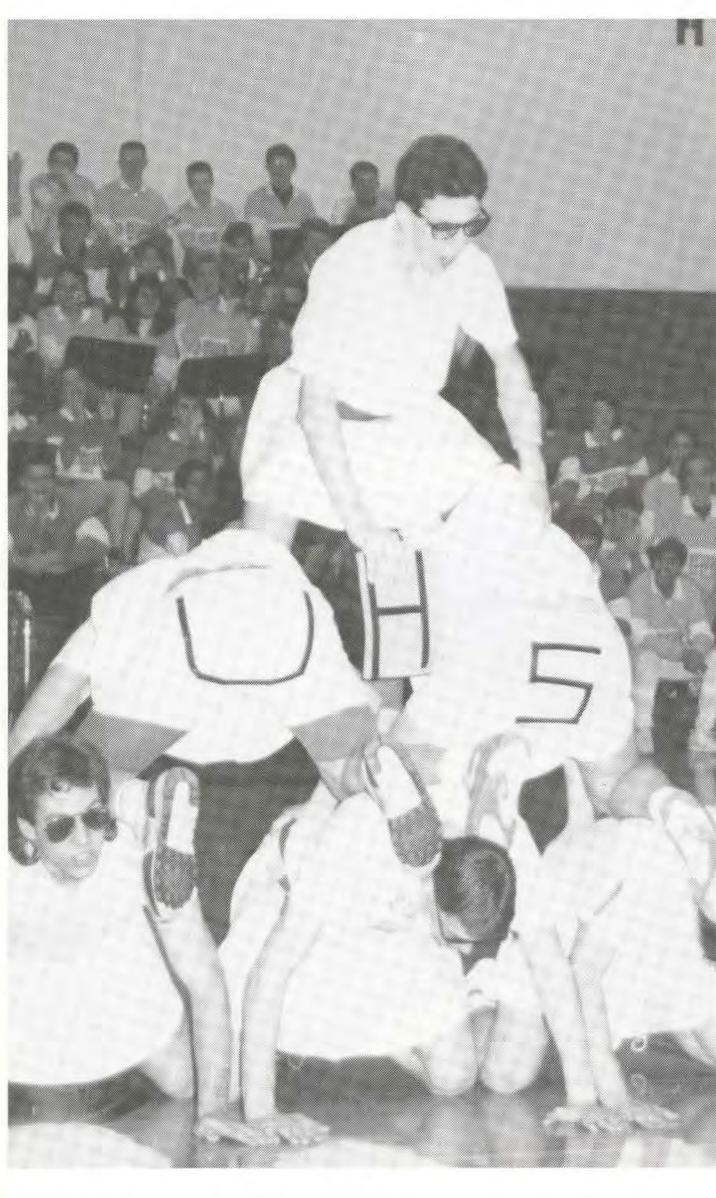

The cheerleaders kept busy throughout the year. When they weren't practicing or cheering for football and basketball games, they were making signs for the numerous athletic teams to inform the student body of when and where activities are taking place.

The cheerleaders, now official athletes, made their contributions to U-High's overall school spirit by hanging signs, arranging pep buses, doing warm-up aerobics for the wrestling and track teams, and running all school pep assemblies.

The cheerleaders do not get the thanks and recognition, they deserve for all of their hard work, so cheerleaders, this ones for you......

Thanks!

V Bad

This year's volleyball team was a young one with one Freshman starter, Yen Quach, and only two Seniors, Kristen Guilliams and Dawn Kelley, who also served as team captains. The final varsity record was 13-14 this year. Coaching the team were Lois Wisniewski and Karen Kym.

The season's highlights were a second place trophy from the U-High Tourney and a third place trophy from Intercity. Kristen Guilliams was named MVP.

The team did not proceed to state after a close match at Reginals, but will come back next season with some valued experience.

Sprint towards Victory

Cross Country takes 13th in state

The 1990 U-High cross country team ran its way to a 13th place victory in state competition this year. Co-captians Charles Alsberry and Mike Sams, along with coach Lester Hampton, led the runners to 1st or 2nd place finishes in eleven of the fourteen meets this season.

The team was narrowly defeated in the conference meet by Pontiac in a 43-44 point battle. Sophomore stand-out Barrett Moore finished one of the conference meet's 3 mile run with a 15:17.30 time.

Moore also led the pioneers to victory at the U-High Invitational with a time of 15:55. Alsberry, a second time All State title winner, placed second at the Invitational, Sams placed 13th, junior Kyle Anderson placed 15th, and Kevin Eggan placed 20th.

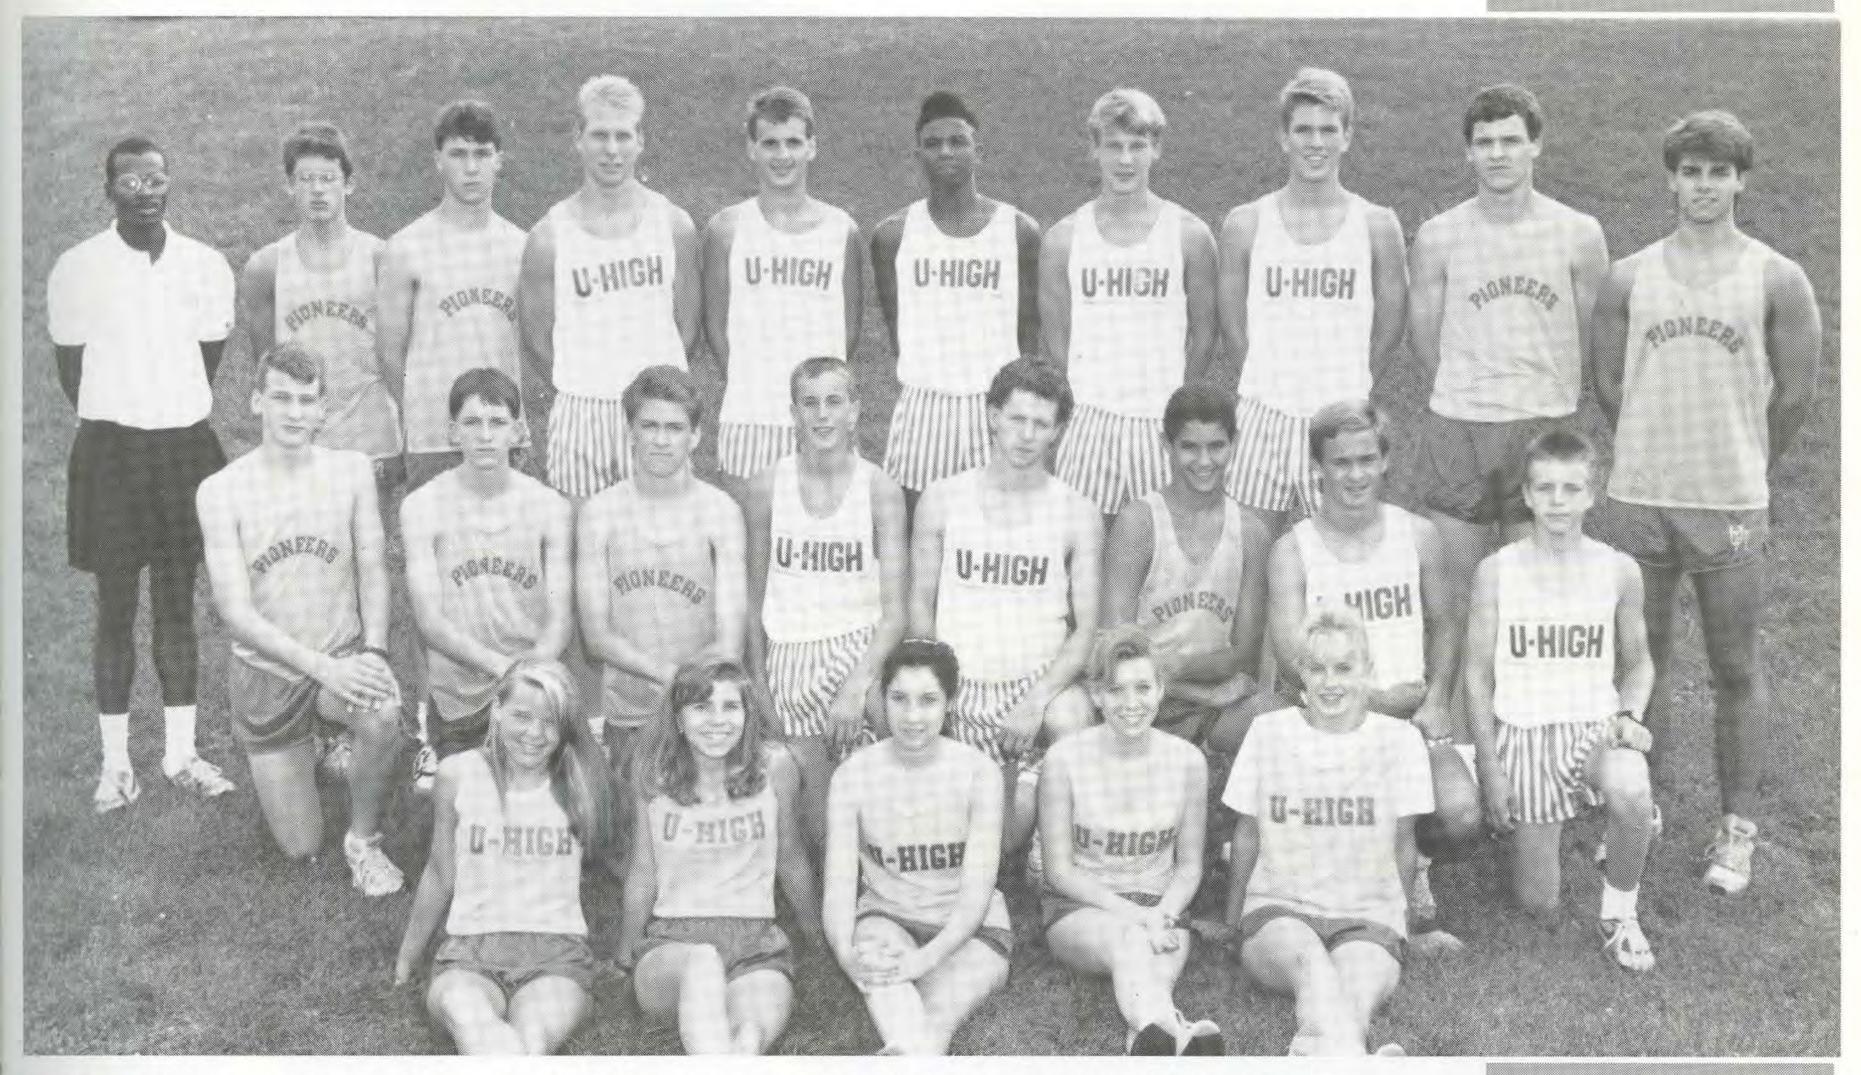

The runners continued to keep their winning pace by finishing 2nd in the intercity meet, falling only slightly behind winner NCHS. Moore helped the team towords this achievement by coming in first.

Despite the large number of injuries and the small number of participants the girls' cross country ran in many meets for individual scores and pulled together anticipating next year's season. The girls will be losing one, senior, MVP Linette Wagner, but the team is looking onto next year's season.

Tennis Hits Back with a 9-1 Record

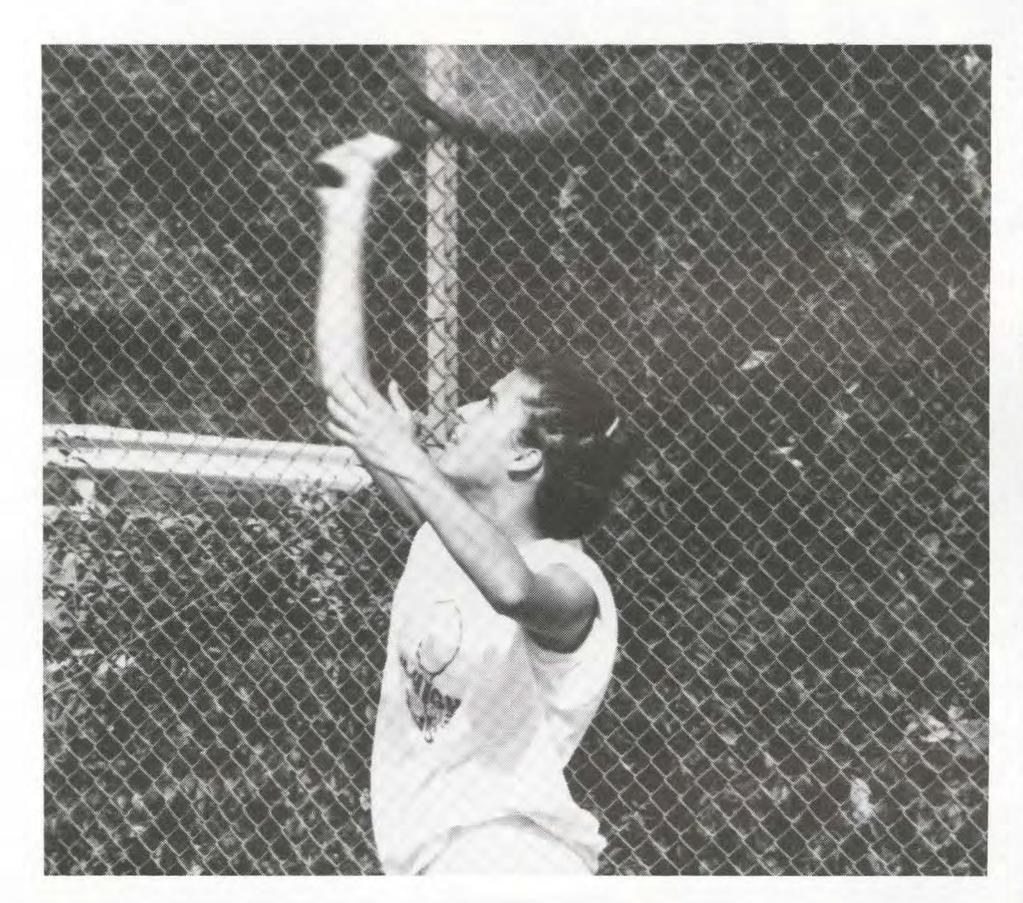

The 1990 season brought out the best in the Girls' tennis team. With a 9-1 record, the girls can call this year an impressive success.

First year coach Phil Nevels can be proud of the almost undefeated record and a third-place trophy from the Bloomington Sectional. This season also produced two state qualifiers, Amy O'Connor and Allison Malito.

Two Senior team captains,
Amy O'Connor and Lara McCluskey, were an inspiration to the team this year. Amy O'Connor was named Most in a row and nine letterwinners were honored.

Towards a Victory

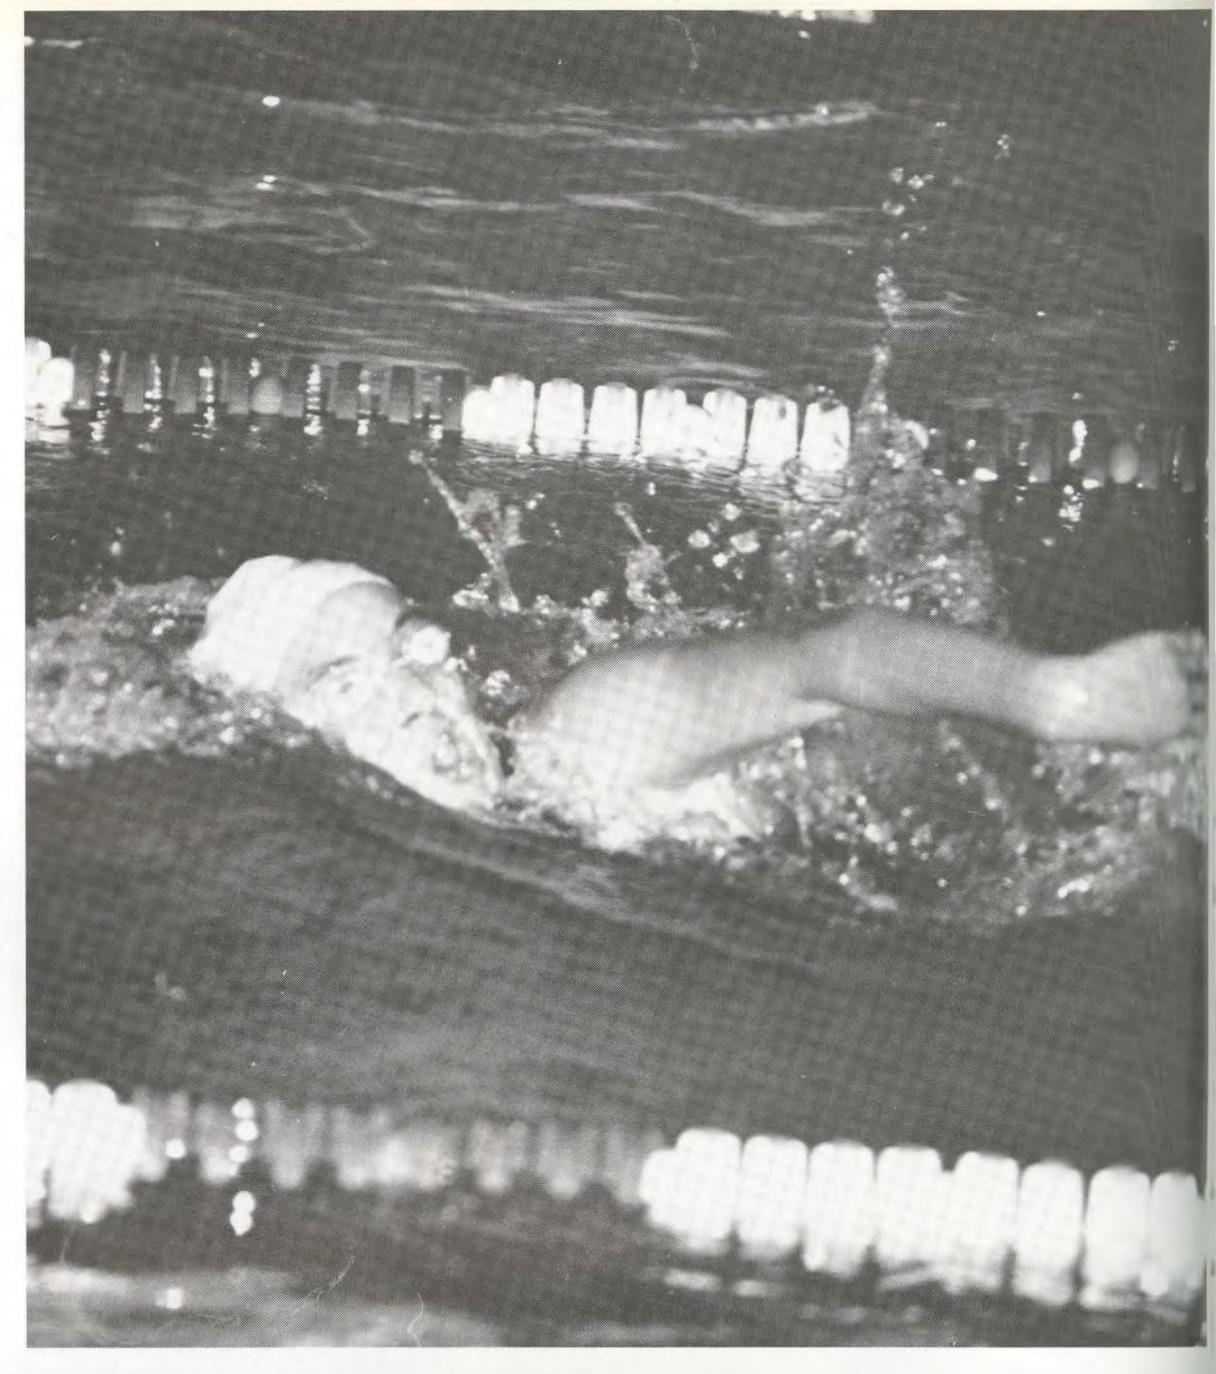

The UHS girls' swimming and diving team swam its way to a 4th place sectionals victory this year.

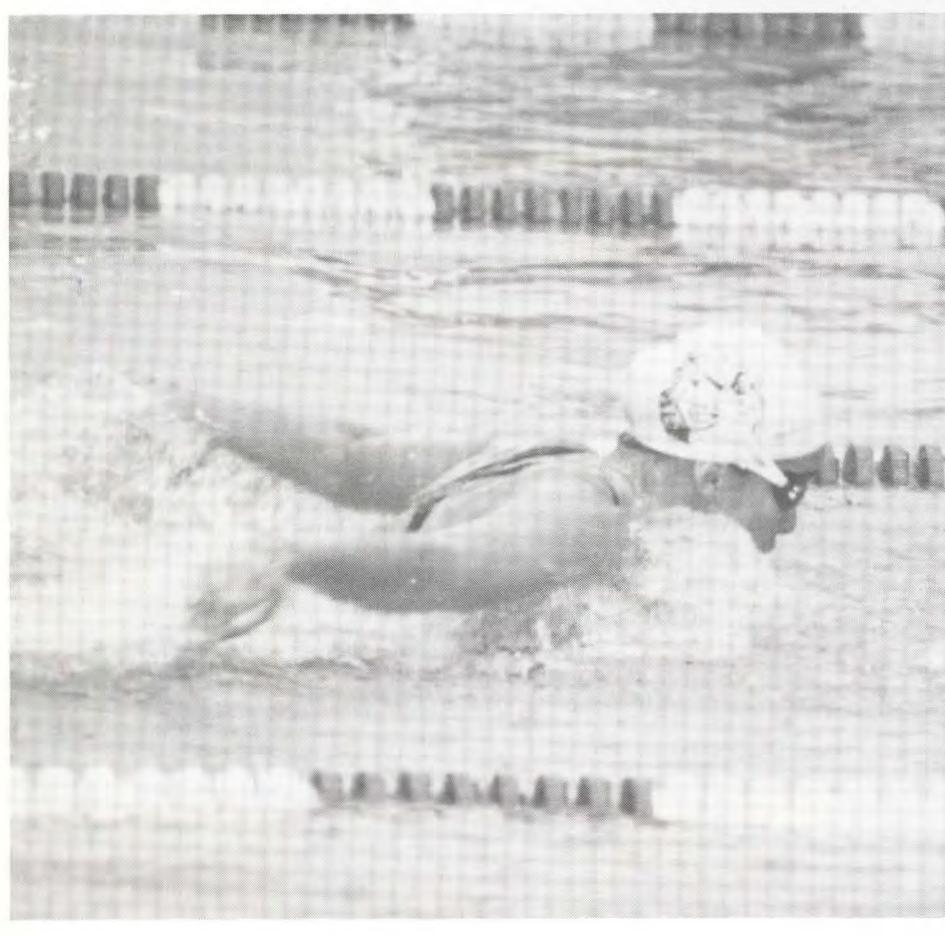

Led by first year coach Laurie Kammin and co-captians Nancy Ash and Ryane Doty, the team ended the season with an 8-7 record. Despite only one lone senior, Nancy Ash, the youthful team held together and finished the season on a positive note.

The young team, consisiting of one senior, five juniors, four sophomores and five freshmen, captured victories against conference rivals such as Pontiac, Olympia, and Uni-High. What the girls lack in age and size they had in talent and stamina.

The girls withstood the fierce competition at the Bloomington Invitational this year and came in 6th just behind the larger more powerful schools such as NCHS, Bloomington, and Springfield Southeast.

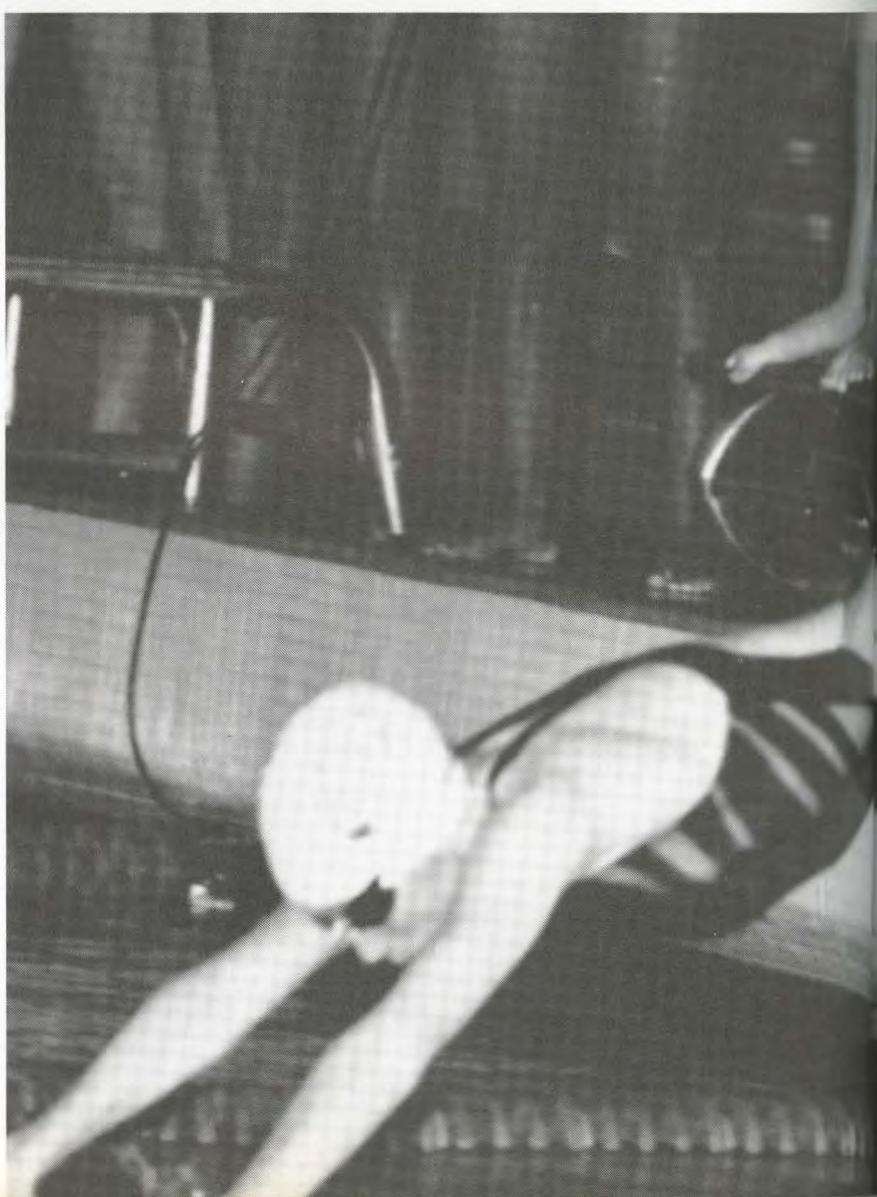

Carrie Kerns showed the positive outlook the team had when she said,"It was a young team but in the end we pulled together and had a great year. Everyone is looking to a stronger more successful season next year."

3rd in State Once Again!

The boy's varsity golf team placed third in state for the second year in a row. The team was hoping for a first but they came home to U-High with the third place trophy. Cory Legner and Tom Baer went as individual qualifiers along with the team to state.

The team also brought home a 2nd place in sectionals, a 1st place at regionals, a 2nd in the intercity competition, and 2nd in the conference.

Captian John Handy lead the golfers to a 17-4 season along with the help of the 5 varsity golfers Mark Briggs, Tom Baer, Brady Knight, Cory Legner, and Chad Allen, and 9 junior varsity players.

Girls Golf Expodes into U-High Sports Scene

The nine girls on the 1990 U-High girls golf team can truly be called pioneers. Cal Hubbard coached the first year team and was quoted as saying, "We started out with two girls at our first practice and ended the season with nine. Each and every girl improved tremendously throughout the season."

If you are a first year team it is hard to be competitive but the girls held out during the season by beating such intercity rivals as Bloomington and Central Catholic.

Sarah Arnold expressed a positive attitude about the team when she said," Despite the fact that no one thought that we would be competitive, we stayed together and had a lot of fun. It was a great year."

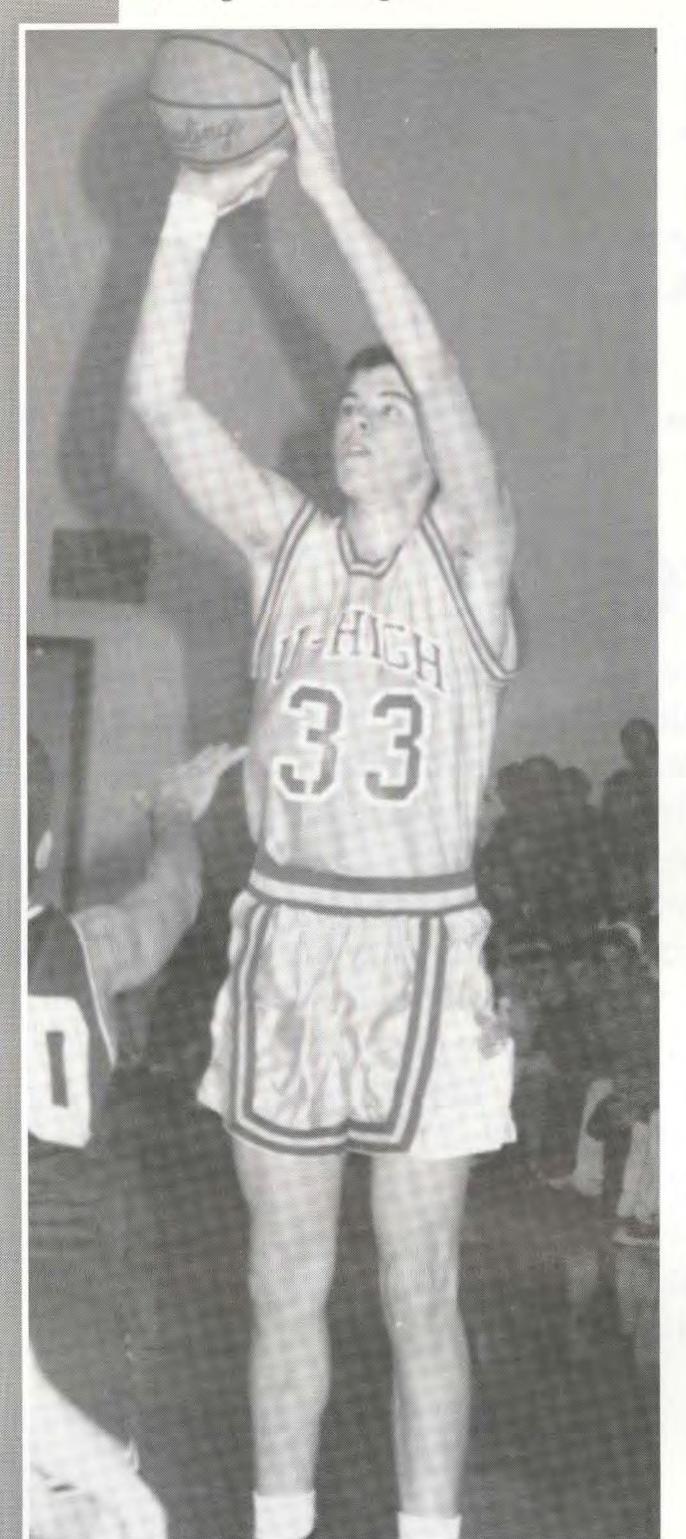

The girls and coach Hubbard are looking towards a stronger more competitive season nex year with a larger more experienced team.

The Boys bounce back!

In a quest for excellence the boys basketball team under the direction of Cal Hubbard reached the climax of the season at the Olympia Sectionals tournament.

The Pioneers, during a 22-6 season, won the Cornbelt conference title, the regional championship, and the boys placed 2nd falling to Olympia in a 47-49 loss.

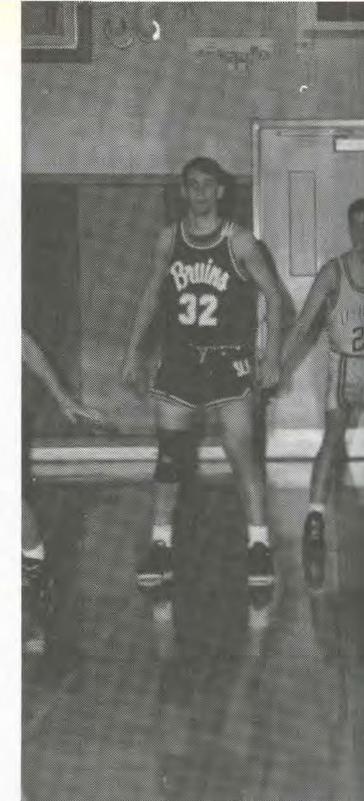

The Pioneers boasted two all conference team players, Brady Knight and Neal Hubbard, and two all tournament players, Neal Hubbard and Jeff Graham, at the Illinois State Classic tournement.

The team is losing five senior starters this year but the team has a stable backbone of juniors coming up and a talented group of sophomores coming in to lead the Pioneers through a successful season next year.

Boys' Swimming Team Splashes the Competition

This year's swimming record was a memorable one. The team broke seven school records and had an undefeated season with an 11-0 record. They placed 1st at Waubonsie Valley Pentathlon and 2nd at Burlington. The boys reigned as champions at Sectionals and placed 14th in State.

Jim Scott coached the winning team and Chris Grotbo served as Captain. The Most Valuble Player was Steve Scott and four team members qualified for State: Ben Gerdes, Steve Scott, J.T. Almeida, and Matt Cetin. All American swimmers were Ben Gerdes and Steve Scott.

Several school records were broken this year in the 200 Yard Medley Relay, the 200 Yard Individual Relay, 50 Yard Freestyle, 500 Yard Freestyle, 200 Yard Free Relay, 100 Yard Backstroke, and the 100 Yard Breast-stroke. U-High left the competition all wet.

Do YouWanna Dance?

The University High School varsity pom pon squad danced, kicked, and toe touched their way to state competition for the second year in a row. The girls placed first in the small school pom catagory at the first annual University High School Invitational which U-High hosted to quaranantee a spot at state. The competition in January drew in over 30 teams who competed in events ranging from open poms to novelty.

There was a new addition to the pom squad this year. Because of the number of girls who tried out for the squad Mark Victor created a J.V. team. The team practiced along with the varsity but competed with their own routine at competitions.

During state competition the girls spent the weekend at a less than wonderful motel, ate at an interesting buffet, and received numerous individual awards. Some of the awards included...

The Sunshine Award-Kristen Guilliams
Best Smile Before and After Braces- Tara Gruszynski
Best Toe Pointer- Sarah Bray

Baseball Strikes Out the Enemy!

The U-High boys' baseball team advanced their way to the state quarterfinals this year. The boys, under the leadership of Jim Scott, were one the final eight teams in the class A quarterfinals this year. The team lost their first game to Altoff, who ended up placing first in state.

The pioneers were led by star senior pitcher, John Feely, who was one of the many players who were chosen for the Pantagraph All Star Team. Other members of the team included Jeff Graham, Kevin Naylor, Rob Hougus, Scott Niersteimer, Justin Woith, and Eric Graff, who had a record breaking number of votes, 1,423, for the Pantagraph team.

John Feely, Eric Graff, Jeff Graham, Justin Woith, and Brady Knight were players that were picked for the All Conference Team.

Third In State!

First of all, they won their Regional. They hadn't planned on it; putting more checks in the win column than the loss column and maybe winning a Regional had been the goals for this young team who had only one senior to its credit. They were focusing already on the strength and experience they would gain for the next year.

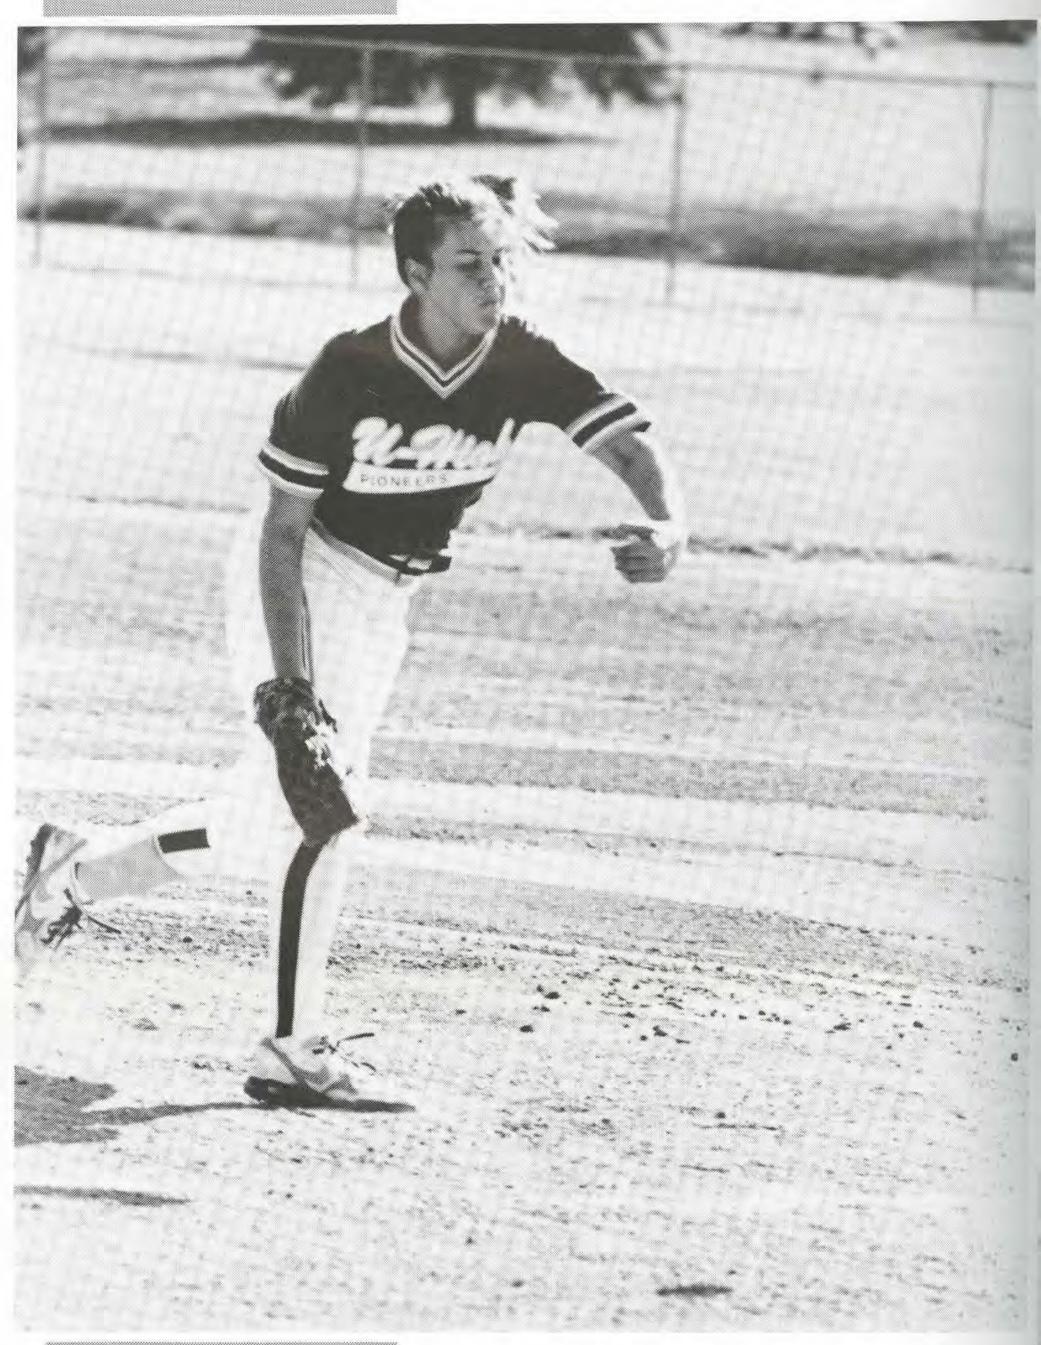

Then U-High's softball team, coached by Charleen Lehnen, went on to win their Sectional at ISU's McCormick Field. They were going to ride this horse as long as they could. Pekin, and the Class A Softball Tournament, were next.

The Cinderella team won their first game, which assured them at least a fourth place in the State. When they lost a bid to play in the championship game, they went into the consolation game determined not to place fourth. When a rainout delay was called, with U-High trailing 3-2, and play scheduled to resume the next day, the team had time to reorganize and collect its thoughts. They returned to Pekin Saturday morning, renewed and unable to accept a potential loss for the last game of their season. The Pioneers overpowered their opponent in the final innings of that game, and with aggressive and creative play, earned the third place honors in the State.

Mark Briggs
Student Assistant Varsity Coach

During his four years at U-High, Mark Briggs took time from his schedule to assist Varsity Coach Char Lehnen in developing winning teams. After so many years of working together, Lehnen and Briggs developed a mode of communication no one else could ever hope to interpret, since Lehnen, standing on third, and Briggs, at his post on first, could not simply shout their ideas across the field to one another. Together, Lehnen and Briggs developed teams that were fascinating to watch because of the risks they took and their creativity.

Tracking the Season

The girls' track team competed well this season. Coach Tim Green and the team assistant, Martha Mueller, worked well with captains, Linette Wagner and Amy O'Connor, in preparing the team. This year there were a considerable amount of freshmen who joined the team roster. Freshman Janeen Golomb received All-

Conference in the High Hurdles. Linette Wagner was named Most Valuable Player. There were fifteen letterwinners this season.

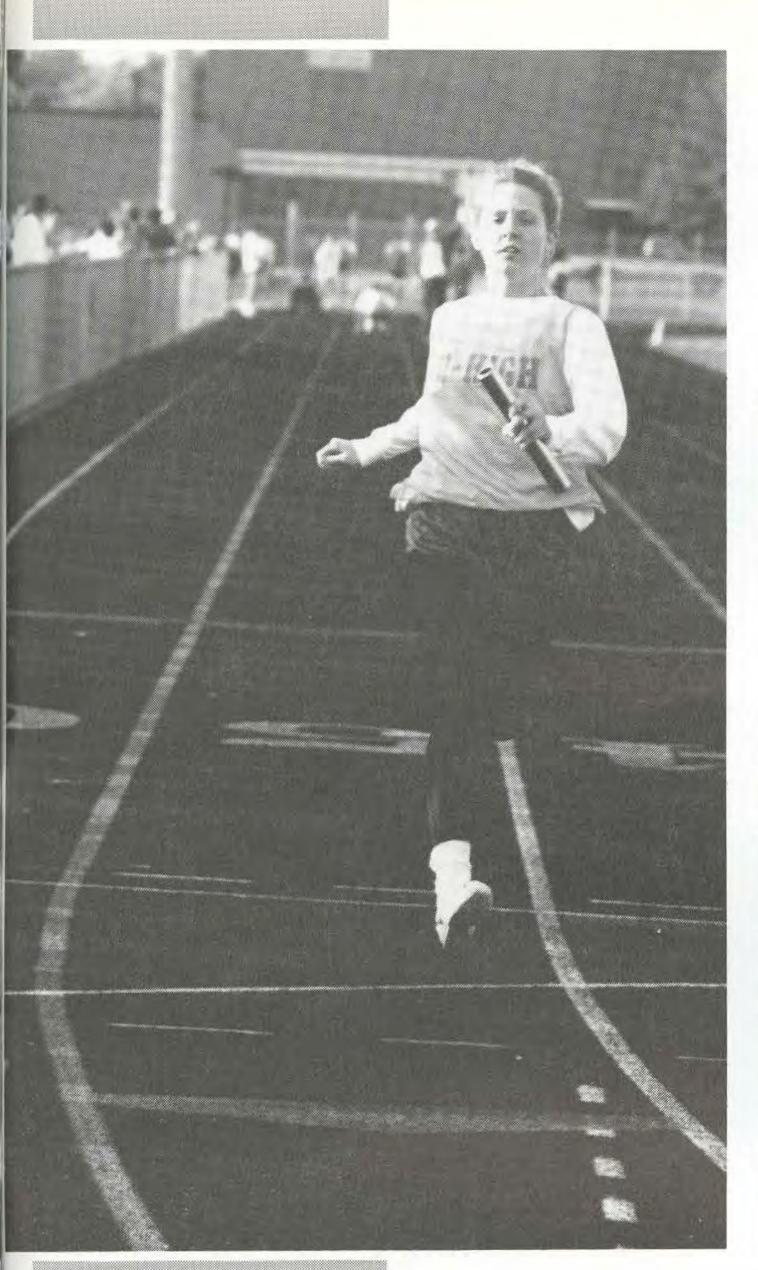

U-High placed 3rd in six out of seven track meets and placed 3rd at Intercity. The team received 5th at Conference and 10th at Sectionals.

No rally for Pontiac as U High takes win

By JIM BENSON Pantagraph staff

PONTIAC — Pontiac High School's football team kept pounding halfback Rick Baier into the University High defense last night.

When the Indians needed to crash into the end zone, though, they came up short.

Pontiac moved to the Pioneers' 13yard line late in the fourth quarter during the Corn Belt Conference game at Williamson Field. However, the drive stalled there and U High came away with a 20-12 victory.

"We had a chance to get the tie, but I did not call the right plays," said Pontiac coach Mick Peterson. "We had a chance, just like we did last year (in a 14-12 loss to U High)."

The loss was Pontiac's first after opening the season with two victories, while U High snapped a two-game losing streak. Both teams are 1-1 in the Corn Belt.

Baier carried 32 times for 113 yards, but did not touch the ball when the Indians got to U High's 13 with about four minutes left.

Miles Bertsche was stopped for no gain on first down, and a reverse by Willie Saucedo also went for nothing. On third down, quarterback Mike Lucas threw an incompletion.

Lucas was sacked by U High's Paul Langellier and Rich Corry for an eightyard loss on fourth down.

Pontiac got the ball back on its own

25 with 1:36 left, but could move only two yards before throwing three incompletions.

"I never thought we were going to lose that game," said Peterson, perhaps thinking of last week's 14-6 victory over Prairie Central when Pontiac scored two late touchdowns.

The biggest surprise on this night, though, was pulled by U High. The Pioneers moved junior Corey Christenson from quarterback to tailback with stunning results.

Christenson gained 112 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Langellier added 96 yards on 14 carries. John Feely took over at quarterback, and hit Christenson with a 10-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to give U High the lead for good.

"As a coach, I was two weeks too short of getting my act together," said first-year U High coach Dave Gannaway.

"They (Christenson and Langellier) complement each other well. They make a nice running combination, and John ran the veer option very well."

Pontiac took a 6-0 lead when it drove 83 yards with the opening kickoff, capped by Lucas' 1-yard sneak.

U High came back for a 14-6 halftime lead by dominating the second quarter. Despite having Langellier's 46-yard scoring run called back by an illegal block, the Pioneers kept driving and got in the end zone when Feely connected with Christenson with 5:26 left for a 7-6 advantage.

U High rolls over Metamora

By JIM BOWERS Pantagraph staff

The ability to adjust usually equals victory in a basketball game and the University High School basketball team proved that in a big way against Metamora last night at U High Gym.

The Pioneers held off aggressive Metamora in the first half to gain a five-point halftime advantage. But midway through the third quarter, U High kicked into high gear and went on to post a 82-50 non-conference victory.

U High rolls into next week's El Paso Class A Regional with a six-game winning streak and 19-6 overall record. Metamora, a Class AA school, enters one more week of the regular season with a 6-17 mark.

With four minutes and 23 seconds remaining in the third period, U High clung to a 47-39 lead. Then, junior Neal Hubbard started an 18-2 run with a 3-pointer and Bob Fitzgerald ended it with a nifty driving layup as the buzzer sounded, enabling the Pioneers to enter the final stanza with a 65-39 advantage.

"We really rushed things in the first half," said U High coach Cal Hubbard. "It was one pass and shoot. In the second half we executed and showed more patience and as a result we were more effective. Defensively, we did the job covering their shooters.

"In the first half, we were frustrated with Metamora's aggressive style of play. We were bumped and let it bother us. In the second half, we ignored it and played."

And the Pioneers did play in the third quarter.

Offensively, U High shot 62 percent from the field (8 of 13), including 3 of 5 three-pointers, made nine of 11 free throws and committed just one turnover.

Meanwhile, the defense forced nine third-quarter turnovers and limited the Redbirds to 21 percent shooting (3 of 14), including 1 of nine from 3-point range.

Keys for the Pioneers in the period were Hubbard with 10 of his 16 points, Jeff Graham with five of his 16, and Fitzgerald with six of his game-high 18.

It also did not hurt the Pioneers that they had a streak of 20 straight successful free throws during a three quarter span and finished 26 of 32 from the line.

Graham helped U High to a 37-36. rebound advantage with seven boards and kept the Pioneers ahead in the first half with 11 of his points.

U High was hurt in the first half by 10 turnovers, 44 percent shooting from the field and the threepoint shooting of Metamora's Matt Reeb.

Reeb scored 11 of his team-high 15 points in the first half as the Redbirds only double-figure scorer.

U High girls rally to grab third place SUNDAY . Quine 2, 199)

Special to The Pantagraph

PEKIN — University High School's softball team went into yesterday's action at the Class A State Tournament trailing Carmi-White County, 3-2. in the third-place game.

The Pioneers also started the day with an 18-8 record compared to Carmi-White County's glittering 27-1 mark.

Apparently, none of that mattered to Coach Char Lehnen's team.

U High, keyed by RBIs from Denise Benjamin and Amanda Hunt, rallied for two runs in the fifth inning and held on for a 4-3 victory in the completion of a game suspended by rain in the fourth inning Friday night.

In yesterday's championship game at Mineral Springs Park, Farmington rode the three-hit pitching of tournament most valuable player Becki Warner to a 7-1 victory over Reed Custer.

U High-Carmi

U High, 19-8, was aided by two walks and a Carmi-White County error in the decisive rally.

Buffy Blust drew a walk to start the inning and Jenny Graff reached on an error. Dawn Kelley drew another walk to load the bases, and Benjamin's fielder's choice grounder drove in Blust with the tying run. Hunt followed with a single to score Kelley.

The sophomore Blust blanked Carmi-White County the rest of the way, running her record to 19-8.

"The girls are really tickled," Lehnen said. "It's nice to end the season on a positive note instead of with a loss. It was a good victory for us because fourth place just wasn't going to be good enough for these girls.

"We've been getting the key hits from the middle of the lineup. Hunt, Benjamin and Kelley have been producing runs, producing hits when we've needed them. After we played a couple of innings with Carmi we thought we would be able to get into our game."

By doing so, the Pioneers ended Carmi-White County's season with a 27-2 record after the Bulldogs came to Pekin with a 26-0 mark. Lehnen said U High's schedule played a role in the disparity between the teams' records entering the contest.

"We don't play an incredibly tough schedule, but I'd say it's more than adequate," she said. "We compete against some good (Class) AA schools and some very tough Class A schools. I guess this shows you that teams are sometimes better than their records indicate."

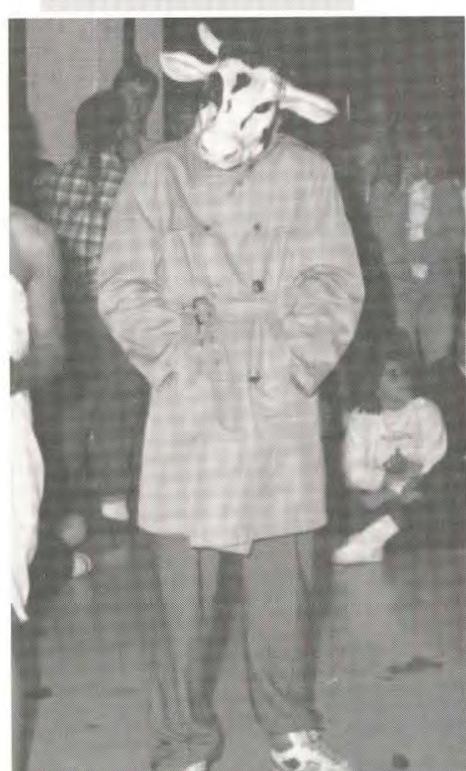

Jana Chapman, 9-2, took the loss for Carmi-White County despite giving up only one hit in 41/3 innings. Chapman was hurt by six walks and two hit batsmen.

Blust allowed four hits and two earned runs. She struck out six and walked four.

HALLOWEEN

The Halloween Dance was a nice addition to the autumn schedule of events. Students donned costumes to compete for the prizes and to celebrate Halloween in style.

Halloween is a time when teens can dress up and show their true selves . The Halloween Dance presented the perfect opportunity for the students of U-High to do just that.

The dance had a very favorable turnout. Some came to show off their costumes, many of which were very memorable, while others came just to dance. In either case, everyone appeared to enjoy themselves. Most students complimented the dance on its fine music and the original costumes. According to Jon Campbell, "The dance was great because the D.J. played a lot of mixes and party music." All in all, the students gave the dance rave reviews. Many also commented that they would like to see the Halloween Dance become an annual event. The participation itself proves that the dance was a success.

"Jingle Bell Bash"

Students Break From Studying

A strong feeling of Christmas hung over U-High as the first song sounded throughout the lounge. With decorations that could make anyone forget that the Christmas snow hadn't fallen yet, the celebration was ready to begin.

The students began to arrive, crowding the dance floor to ring in the holiday season. Amidst the twinkling Christmas lights, they prepared to dance the night away, setting the "Jingle Bell Bash" into full swing.

This "Bash" provided the perfect atmosphere for students to get away from the pressures this time of year brings. Many used the dance as a break from cramming for finals. According to Mark Briggs, "It gave us a break from studying for the hard Calculus final." For some, the dance was also a celebration for the ending of the first semester.

Attendance for the dance was high. Sarah Bray commented "There were a lot of underclassmen, which was good to see." All who attended seemed to have a good time, and according to Mr. Briggs, "Even Santa Claus would have loved this dance."
